Founded in 2016, LLP offers an alternative to traditional financing for high-line and exotic vehicles, partnering with over 300 dealers nationwide that specialize in brands such as Lamborghini, Ferrari, and Rolls-Royce. Prior to implementing ACI Speedpay, LLP relied on disparate systems to manage payments from its customers, resulting in manual reconciliations that created operational bottlenecks. With plans to rapidly increase new customer acquisitions over the next two years, LLP required a system that could scale seamlessly to support its accelerated trajectory. LLP aims to not only reduce variation in internal processes, but offer its customers online and mobile payment experiences that exceed expectations. In under 90 days, LLP went live with the ACI Speedpay bill payment platform, demonstrating the power of partnership, precision, and speed in execution.

“For a luxury business, a robust payment solution is a catalyst to power exceptional customer experiences, operational agility and sustainable growth,” said RuthAnn Carlton Riggs, Chief Operating Officer, LLP Exotic Auto Finance. “ACI brings the trust, transparency and financial stability we prioritize in a partner. With ACI’s deep expertise and proven track record in managing payment complexity, we can confidently focus on what we do best, delighting our customers and growing our business.”

As part of this project, LLP will also implement ACI Walletron, a digital payment and engagement platform integrated with digital wallets. According to the ACI Speedpay Pulse 2025 Report, more than 75% of Americans prefer to pay digitally, with alternative payment methods, such as digital wallets and mobile payments, becoming increasingly mainstream. Aligned with LLP’s focus on customer centricity, the shift to provide embedded digital payments and communications into one cohesive platform elevates the overall customer experience and reinforces modern luxury through convenience and personalization.

“LLP is a new, marquee client for ACI and our partnership with LLP is a testament to how bill payment modernization can simplify complexity and translate into measurable business impact. From a consumer perspective, bill payments should be effortless, giving every customer the confidence that they will never miss a payment again, no matter where they are or how they choose to pay,” said Ron Shultz, General Manager of ACI Speedpay. “By automating manual processes and optimizing every step of the payment journey, we’re enabling efficiency, scalability, and an elevated customer experience that empowers LLP to meet rising customer expectations and evolving regulatory demands.”

ACI Speedpay is a leader in enabling payments for billers, helping them maximize growth, operational efficiencies and customer satisfaction through a modern, scalable, highly efficient payment platform backed by three tiers of resiliency and 50 years of expertise serving more than 3,000 biller customers.
