

ACI Worldwide's Carolyn Homberger Recognized as One of Forty Under 40 Game Changers in Digital Payments

March 23, 2018

Global Head of Sales selected from highly competitive international pool of young industry leaders

NAPLES, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 23, 2018-- ACI Worldwide (NASDAQ: ACIW), a leading global provider of real-time electronic payment and banking solutions, today announced that the Electronic Transactions Association (ETA) has chosen Carolyn Homberger, group president, global sales at ACI, for its inaugural Forty Under 40 award. Highlighting influencers at the intersection of payments and technology, the honorees include individuals working across the evolving segments of the industry whose actions and leadership are driving the payments industry forward.

As president of global sales at ACI, Carolyn heads an experienced team of hundreds of payments professionals driving the sustained, organic growth of ACI's cloud-based and on-premise payment solutions. As a member of ACI's Executive Leadership Team, she is a key decision-maker involved with business strategy, growth and the expansion of ACI's portfolio of next-generation payment solutions.

"It's a true honor to be part of this prestigious group of Forty Under 40 leaders in the payments industry," said Carolyn Homberger, president, global sales, ACI Worldwide. "I'm passionate about the advancement of digital payments and I'm pleased to be among other disrupters who play a role in elevating the industry's future."

A strong advocate for the leadership and growth of women in the payments industry, Carolyn launched ACI's own Women's Initiative, which she continues to actively lead and advocate for today.

"ETAs first Forty Under 40 class is growing the industry at an unprecedented pace," said Jason Oxman, CEO of ETA. "Each honoree possesses a unique skillset, allowing them to identify and shape key segments of the payments ecosystem. The caliber and impact of their work is exceptional and demonstrates their commitment to the industry."
