PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

ACI Worldwide, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Transition Report on Form 10-Q for the transition period ended December 31, 2007 within the prescribed time period because the Company has not yet completed the procedures needed to close the fiscal quarter for the transition period primarily related to income taxes and the adoption of FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No 109. This delay is a result of the compressed timeframe stemming from the Company's filing of five regulatory reports in the preceding six and half months and such delay could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company plans to file its Transition Report on Form 10-Q for the transition period ended December 31, 2007 as soon as practicable, and it currently expects that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.
