The panel will discuss the likely roadmap, focusing on practical use cases: P2P, POS-payments, B2B payments; the impact of factors like ease of use (pay to phone, pay to email, NFC, QR), choice (card or Instant Payment), regulatory push (PSD2), and availability and reach of infrastructures. Additional panelists include executives from TransferMate Global Payments, EBA Clearing and Moorwand.

Additionally, ACI's Jackie Barwell, director, product management, has been selected to participate in Money20/20's Rise Up program. Rise Up is a global initiative designed to address the gender imbalance in leadership positions within the financial services and fintech industry.

ACI will also participate in the European Women's Payments Network (EWPN) Conference, which runs alongside Money20/20 Europe.
