ACI Worldwide's Bridget Hall Recognized Among American Banker's Most Influential Women in Payments 2025

January 9, 2025

OMAHA, Neb.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 9, 2025-- ACI Worldwide (NASDAQ: ACIW), an original innovator in global payments technology, today announced that Bridget Hall, Leader of Real-Time Payments for the Americas, has been named one of American Banker's Most Influential Women in Payments for 2025. This prestigious award celebrates female leaders shaping the future of payments and advancing the financial services industry writ large.

American Banker's Most Influential Women in Payments recognizes individuals whose leadership and vision are redefining the future of payments. The winners are selected based on their professional achievements, leadership within their organizations, and impact on the broader financial services landscape.

Hall was recognized for her instrumental role in driving innovation and growth within ACI Worldwide and the broader payments ecosystem. Under her leadership, ACI has launched transformative solutions in North America and Latin America enabling real-time payments, AI-powered fraud prevention and seamless customer experiences. Her strategic vision has contributed to ACI's go-to-market success in these regions, empowering businesses and financial institutions to meet evolving consumer demands.

"It's incredibly humbling to be recognized alongside so many incredible women leaders who are dedicated to advancing the payments industry," said Hall.

In addition to her professional achievements, Hall is a vocal advocate for mentorship and diversity in financial services. She has spearheaded initiatives within ACI Worldwide and in her professional community to elevate women in technology and finance, encouraging the next generation of industry leaders. Her efforts to create an inclusive workplace culture have helped ACI attract top talent and foster a collaborative environment.

"Effective mentorship and real-world experience are critical to supporting the next generation of leaders. What truly drives progress is the strength of collaboration, where diverse perspectives and expertise come together to solve challenges," said Hall. "The payments landscape is evolving rapidly, and I am privileged to work alongside an exceptional team that is committed to delivering innovative solutions and driving meaningful change across the industry."
