

'iPlay Your Way To STP' With The New iPad Game From ACI Worldwide

Visitors to the ACI Worldwide Stand at Sibos Can Play to Win an iPad2 – Sibos stand C136

(New York, N.Y. – September 14, 2011) – ACI Worldwide (Nasdaq: ACIW), a leading international provider of payment systems, today announced that its iPad game 'ACI Challenge' is now available for download for free from iTunes – simply search for ACI or visit <http://bit.ly/oj844W>. The game ranks players from around the world, with high scores for 'collecting' the different components of payment processing with speed, accuracy and consistency – based on ACI Money Transfer System™, ACI Worldwide's global payment processing solution.

The game, the original version of which received its debut earlier in 2011, has proved highly popular at previous events, prompting ACI to release the updated game as an app onto iTunes so it can be downloaded and played by anyone with an iPad or iPad2. At the Sibos event in Toronto, September 19-23, eligible attendees will be able to visit the ACI stand to play the game on dedicated iPads, and those with the best performance will get on to the leader board. The holder of the top score when the competition closes at Sibos will win an iPad2.

As a global payment processing solution, Money Transfer System delivers advanced payment management and execution and helps streamline banking operations. It is a multibank, multicurrency solution that provides 24x7 payments processing capabilities, and interfaces to multiple Clearing and Settlement Mechanisms (RTGS, ACH, and Deferred Net Settlement systems). It also interfaces easily with messaging systems, internal systems, and numerous third-party banking applications. It provides a single-source solution for domestic and international payments processing, as well as for message switching for SWIFTNet and other networks.
