ACI WORLDWIDE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

1. Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of ACI Worldwide, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. The condensed consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2019, and for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, are unaudited and reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature, which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation, in all material respects, of the financial position and operating results for the interim periods. The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2018, is derived from the audited financial statements.

The condensed consolidated financial statements contained herein should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, filed on March 1, 2019. Results for the three months ended March 31, 2019, are not necessarily indicative of results that may be attained in the future.

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”) requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Individuals and businesses settle their obligations to the Company’s various clients, primarily utility and other public-sector clients, using credit or debit cards or via automated clearing house (“ACH”) payments. The Company creates a receivable for the amount due from the credit or debit card company and an offsetting payable to the client. Upon confirmation that the funds have been received, the Company settles the obligation to the client. Due to timing, in some instances, the Company may receive the funds into bank accounts controlled by and in the Company’s name that are not disbursed to its clients by the end of the day, resulting in a settlement deposit on the Company’s books.

Off Balance Sheet Settlement Accounts

The Company also enters into agreements with certain clients to process payment funds on their behalf. When an ACH or automated teller machine network payment transaction is processed, a transaction is initiated to withdraw funds from the designated source account and deposit them into a settlement account, which is a trust account maintained for the benefit of the Company’s clients. A simultaneous transaction is initiated to transfer funds from the settlement account to the intended destination account. These “back to back” transactions are designed to settle at the same time, usually overnight, such that the Company receives the funds from the source at the same time as it sends the funds to their destination. However, due to the transactions being with various financial institutions there may be timing differences that result in float balances. These funds are maintained in accounts for the benefit of the client, which is separate from the Company’s corporate assets. As the Company does not take ownership of the funds, the settlement accounts are not included in the Company’s balance sheet. The Company is entitled to interest earned on the fund balances. The collection of interest on these settlement accounts is considered in the Company’s determination of its fee structure for clients and represents a portion of the payment for services performed by the Company. The amount of settlement funds as of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, was $199.6 million and $256.5 million, respectively.

Fair Value

The fair value of the Company's Credit Agreement approximates the carrying value due to the floating interest rate (Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy). The Company measures the fair value of its Senior Notes based on Level 2 inputs, which include quoted market prices and interest rate spreads of similar securities. The fair value of the Company's 5.750% Senior Notes due 2026 ("2026 Notes") as of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, was $409.5 million and $395.0 million respectively.

The fair values of cash and cash equivalents approximate the carrying values due to the short period of time to maturity (Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy).

Goodwill

In accordance with the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, the Company assesses goodwill for impairment annually during the fourth quarter of its fiscal year using October 1 balances or when there is evidence that events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recovered. The Company evaluates goodwill at the reporting unit level and has identified its operating segments, ACI On Demand and ACI On Premise, as its reporting units. As of March 31, 2019, the Company's goodwill of $909.7 million was allocated to its two reporting units, with $725.9 million allocated to ACI On Premise and $183.8 million allocated to ACI On Demand.

Recoverability of goodwill is measured using a discounted cash flow model incorporating discount rates commensurate with the risks involved. Use of a discounted cash flow model is common practice in impairment testing in the absence of available transactional market evidence to determine the fair value. The calculated fair value was substantially in excess of the current carrying value for all reporting units based upon the October 1, 2018, annual impairment test and there have been no indications of impairment in the subsequent periods.

New Accounting Standards Recently Adopted

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2016-02, Leases (codified as "ASC 842"). ASC 842 requires lessees to recognize right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases unless, as a policy election, a lessee elects not to apply ASC 842 to short-term leases. In addition, this standard requires both lessees and lessors to disclose certain key information about lease transactions. The Company adopted ASC 842 on January 1, 2019 (the effective date), using the optional transition method to not apply the new lease standard in the comparative periods presented and elected the "practical expedient package", which permits the Company to not reassess prior conclusions about lease identification, lease classification, and initial direct costs. ASC 842 also provides practical expedients for the Company's ongoing accounting including the combination of lease and non-lease components into a single lease component which the Company has elected to apply to its facilities leases. As of January 1, 2019, the Company recognized ROU assets and operating lease liabilities of $63.3 million and $68.6 million, respectively. Refer to Note 13, Leases, for further details.

In February 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-02, Income Statement-Reporting Comprehensive Income: Reclassification of Certain Tax Effects from Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income. This ASU provides an option to reclassify stranded tax effects within accumulated other comprehensive income ("AOCI") to retained earnings in each period in which the effect of the change in the U.S. federal corporate income tax rate in the 2017 U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (or portion thereof) is recorded. This ASU requires disclosure of a description of the accounting policy for releasing income tax effects from AOCI; whether election is made to reclassify the stranded income tax effects from the 2017 U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act; and information about the income tax effects that are reclassified. The Company adopted ASU 2018-02 as of January 1, 2019. The adoption of ASU 2018-02 did not have an impact on the condensed consolidated balance sheet, results of operations, and statement of cash flows.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards Not Yet Effective

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses: Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. This ASU provides financial statement users with more decision-useful information about the expected credit losses on financial instruments and other commitments to extend credit held by a reporting entity at each reporting date. The amendments in ASU 2016-13 replace the incurred loss impairment methodology in current U.S. GAAP with a methodology that reflects expected credit losses and requires consideration of a broader range of reasonable and supportable information to inform credit loss estimates. The Company will be required to use a forward-looking expected credit loss model for accounts receivables and other financial instruments. Subsequent to issuing ASU 2016-13, the FASB issued ASU 2018-19, Codification Improvements to Topic 326, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses, for the purpose of clarifying certain aspects of ASU 2016-13. ASU 2018-19 has the same effective date and transition requirements as ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The Company is currently assessing the impact the adoption of ASU 2016-13 will have on its condensed consolidated balance sheet, results of operations, and cash flow.

2. Revenue

In accordance with ASC 606, Revenue From Contracts With Customers, revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised products and/or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those products and services. Revenue is recognized net of any taxes collected from customers and subsequently remitted to governmental authorities. Refer to Note 11, Segment Information, for further details, including disaggregation of revenue based on primary solution category and geographic location.

Total receivables represent amounts billed and amounts earned that are to be billed in the future (i.e., accrued receivables). Included in accrued receivables are services and SaaS and PaaS revenues earned in the current period but billed in the following period and amounts due under multi-year software license arrangements with extended payment terms for which the Company has an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment subsequent to invoicing.

No customer accounted for more than 10% of the Company's consolidated receivables balance as of March 31, 2019, or December 31, 2018.

Deferred revenue includes amounts due or received from customers for software licenses, maintenance, services, and/or SaaS and PaaS services in advance of recording the related revenue. Changes in deferred revenue were as follows (in thousands):

Balance, December 31, 2018	$156,135
Deferral of revenue	42,533
Recognition of deferred revenue	(46,701)
Foreign currency translation	255
Balance, March 31, 2019	$152,222

Revenue allocated to remaining performance obligations represents contracted revenue that will be recognized in future periods, which is comprised of deferred revenue and amounts that will be invoiced and recognized as revenue in future periods. This does not include:

- Revenue that will be recognized in future periods from capacity overages that are accounted for as a usage-based royalty.
- SaaS and PaaS revenue from variable consideration that will be recognized in accordance with the 'right to invoice' practical expedient.
- SaaS and PaaS revenue from variable consideration that will be recognized in accordance with the direct allocation method.

Revenue allocated to remaining performance obligations was $628.3 million as of March 31, 2019, of which the Company expects to recognize approximately 46% over the next 12 months and the remainder thereafter.

During the three months ended March 31, 2019, revenue recognized by the Company from performance obligations satisfied in previous periods was $3.9 million. During the three months ended March 31, 2018, revenue recognized by the Company from performance obligations satisfied in previous periods was not significant.

3. Acquisition

Speedpay

On May 9, 2019, the Company acquired Speedpay, the U.S. bill pay business of Western Union Company (“WU”) for $750.0 million in cash, subject to adjustments, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, among the Company, WU, and ACI Worldwide Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The combination of the Company and Speedpay bill pay solutions will serve more than 4,000 customers across the U.S., bringing expanded reach in existing and complementary market segments such as consumer finance, insurance, healthcare, higher education, utilities, government, and mortgage. The acquisition of Speedpay will increase the scale of the Company’s On Demand platform business and allow the acceleration of platform innovation.

The acquisition of Speedpay will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, where the Company will record all assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their respective acquisition-date fair values. The Company has not completed the valuation analysis and calculations necessary to finalize the required purchase price allocations. In addition to goodwill, the final purchase price allocation may include allocations to intangible assets such as trademarks and tradenames, developed technology, and customer-related assets.

Effective April 5, 2019, the Company entered into an amendment agreement (the “amendment”) with ACI Worldwide Corp., Official Payments Corporation, the lenders, and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent for the lenders, to amend and restate the Company’s Credit Agreement, dated February 24, 2017. The amendment permitted the Company to borrow up to $500.0 million in the form of a senior secured term loan; extended the revolver and the term loan maturity date from February 24, 2022, to April 5, 2024; and increased the maximum consolidated senior secured net leverage ratio covenant from 3.50:1.00 to 3.75:1.00; among other things. The Company used the funds from the new term loan, in addition to drawing $250.0 million on the available Revolving Credit Facility, to fund the acquisition.

Through March 31, 2019, the Company expensed approximately $4.7 million of costs related to the acquisition of Speedpay. These costs, which consist primarily of consulting and legal fees, are included in general and administrative expenses in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

4. Debt

As of March 31, 2019, the Company had $279.0 million and $400.0 million outstanding under its Term Credit Facility and Senior Notes, respectively, with up to $500.0 million of unused borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility portion of the Credit Agreement, as amended.

Credit Agreement

On February 24, 2017, the Company entered into an amended and restated credit agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) replacing the existing agreement with a syndicate of financial institutions, as lenders, and Bank of America, N.A., as the administrative agent, providing for revolving loans, swingline loans, letters of credit, and a term loan. The Credit Agreement consists of (a) a five-year $500.0 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the “Revolving Credit Facility”), which includes sublimits for (1) the issuance of standby letters of credit and (2) swingline loans, and (b) a five-year $415.0 million senior secured term loan facility (the “Term Credit Facility” and, together with the Revolving Credit Facility, the “Credit Facility”). The Credit Agreement also allows the Company to request optional incremental term loans and increases in the revolving commitment.

At the Company’s option, borrowings under the Credit Facility bear interest at an annual rate equal to, either (a) a base rate determined by reference to the highest of (1) the annual interest rate publicly announced by the administrative agent as its Prime Rate, (2) the federal funds effective rate plus 1/2 of 1%, or (3) a London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”) rate determined by reference to the costs of funds for U.S. dollar deposits for a one-month interest period, adjusted for certain additional costs, plus 1% or (b) a LIBOR rate determined by reference to the costs of funds for U.S. dollar deposits for the interest period relevant to such borrowings, adjusted for certain additional costs, plus an applicable margin. Based on the calculation of the applicable consolidated total leverage ratio, the applicable margin for borrowings under the Credit Facility is between 0.25% to 1.25% with respect to base rate borrowings and between 1.25% and 2.25% with respect to LIBOR rate borrowings. Interest is due and payable monthly. The interest rate in effect as of March 31, 2019, for the Credit Facility was 4.25%.

The Company is also required to pay (a) a commitment fee related to the unutilized commitments under the Revolving Credit Facility, payable quarterly in arrears, (b) letter of credit fees on the maximum amount available to be drawn under all outstanding letters of credit in an amount equal to the applicable margin on LIBOR rate borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility on an annual basis, payable quarterly in arrears, and (c) customary fronting fees for the issuance of letters of credit fees and agency fees.

The Company’s obligations under the Credit Facility and cash management arrangements entered into with lenders under the Credit Facility (or affiliates thereof) and the obligations of the subsidiary guarantors are secured by first-priority security interests in substantially all assets of the Company and any guarantor, including 100% of the capital stock of ACI Worldwide Corp. and each domestic subsidiary of the Company, each domestic subsidiary of any guarantor, and 65% of the voting capital stock of each foreign subsidiary of the Company that is directly owned by the Company or a guarantor, in each case subject to certain exclusions set forth in the credit documentation governing the Credit Facility. On October 9, 2018, the Company entered into the first amendment to the collateral agreement of the Credit Agreement. This amendment released the lien on certain assets of Official Payments Corporation (“OPAY”), our electronic bill presentment and payment affiliate, to allow OPAY to comply with certain eligible securities and unencumbered asset requirements related to money transmitter or transfer license rules and regulations.

The Credit Agreement contains a number of covenants that, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, restrict the Company’s ability and, as applicable, the ability of its subsidiaries to: create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any additional indebtedness; create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any liens; enter into agreements and other arrangements that include negative pledge clauses; pay dividends on capital stock or redeem, repurchase or retire capital stock or subordinated indebtedness; create restrictions on the payment of dividends or other distributions by subsidiaries; make investments, loans, advances and acquisitions; merge, consolidate or enter into any similar combination or sell assets, including equity interests of the subsidiaries; enter into sale and leaseback transactions; directly or indirectly engage in transactions with affiliates; alter in any material respect the character or conduct of the business; enter into amendments of or waivers under subordinated indebtedness, organizational documents and certain other material agreements; and hold certain assets and incur certain liabilities.

Senior Notes

On August 21, 2018, the Company completed a $400.0 million offering of the 2026 Notes at an issue price of 100% of the principal amount, in a private placement for resale to qualified institutional buyers. The 2026 Notes bear interest at an annual rate of 5.750%, payable semi-annually in arrears on February 15 and August 15 of each year, commencing on February 15, 2019. Interest accrued from August 21, 2018. The 2026 Notes will mature on August 15, 2026.

The Company used the net proceeds of the offering described above to redeem in full the Company’s outstanding 6.375% Senior Notes due 2020, including accrued interest, and repaid a portion of the outstanding amount under the Term Credit Facility.

Maturities on long-term debt outstanding as of March 31, 2019, are as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal year ending December 31,

Thereafter	400,000

The Credit Agreement and 2026 Notes also contain certain customary mandatory prepayment provisions. As specified in the Credit Agreement and 2026 Notes agreement, if certain events shall occur, the Company may be required to repay all or a portion of the amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility or 2026 Notes.

The Credit Facility will mature on February 24, 2022, and the 2026 Notes will mature on August 15, 2026. The Revolving Credit Facility and 2026 Notes do not amortize. The Term Credit Facility does amortize, with principal payable in consecutive quarterly installments.

The Credit Agreement and 2026 Notes contain certain customary affirmative covenants and negative covenants that limit or restrict, subject to certain exceptions, the incurrence of liens, indebtedness of subsidiaries, mergers, advances, investments, acquisitions, transactions with affiliates, change in nature of business and the sale of the assets. The Company is also required to maintain a consolidated leverage ratio at or below a specified amount and an interest coverage ratio at or above a specified amount. As specified in the Credit Agreement and 2026 Notes agreement, if an event of default shall occur and be continuing, the Company may be required to repay all amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility and 2026 Notes. As of March 31, 2019, and at all times during the period, the Company was in compliance with its financial debt covenants.

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018
Expected life (years)	5.6
Risk-free interest rate	2.7%
Expected volatility	26.4%
Expected dividend yield	—

Expected volatilities are based on the Company’s historical common stock volatility, derived from historical stock price data for periods commensurate with the options’ expected life. The expected life of the options granted represents the period of time options are expected to be outstanding, based primarily on historical employee option exercise behavior. The risk-free interest rate is based on the implied yield currently available on U.S. Treasury zero coupon bonds issued with a term equal to the expected life at the date of grant of the options. The expected dividend yield is zero, as the Company has historically paid no dividends and does not anticipate dividends to be paid in the future.

9. Loss Per Share

Basic loss per share is computed in accordance with ASC 260, Earnings per Share, based on weighted average outstanding common shares. Diluted loss per share is computed based on basic weighted average outstanding common shares adjusted for the dilutive effect of stock options and RSUs.

The following table reconciles the weighted average share amounts used to compute both basic and diluted loss per share (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2019	2018
Weighted average shares outstanding:
Basic weighted average shares outstanding	116,090	115,642
Add: Dilutive effect of stock options and RSUs	—	—
Diluted weighted average shares outstanding	116,090	115,642

The diluted loss per share computation excludes 7.4 million and 8.6 million options to purchase shares, RSUs, and contingently issuable shares during the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, as their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Common stock outstanding as of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, was 116,530,435 and 116,123,361, respectively.

11. Segment Information

The Company reports financial performance based on its segments, ACI On Premise and ACI On Demand, and analyzes Segment Adjusted EBITDA as a measure of segment profitability.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer is also the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"). The CODM, together with other senior management personnel, focus their review on consolidated financial information and the allocation of resources based on operating results, including revenues and Segment Adjusted EBITDA, for each segment, separate from Corporate operations.

ACI On Premise serves customers who manage their software on site. These on-premise customers use the Company's software to develop sophisticated solutions, which are often part of a larger system located and managed at the customer specified site. These customers require a level of control and flexibility that ACI On Premise solutions can offer, and they have the resources and expertise to take a lead role in managing these solutions.

ACI On Demand serves the needs of banks, merchants and corporates who use payments to facilitate their core business. These on-demand solutions are maintained and delivered through the cloud via our global data centers and are available in either a single-tenant environment for SaaS offerings, or in a multi-tenant environment for PaaS offerings.

Revenue is attributed to the reportable segments based upon the product sold and mechanism for delivery to the customer. Expenses are attributed to the reportable segments in one of three methods: (1) direct costs of the segment, (2) labor costs that can be attributed based upon time tracking for individual products, or (3) costs that are allocated. Allocated costs are generally marketing and sales related activities as well as information technology and facilities related expense for which multiple segments benefit. The Company also allocates certain depreciation costs to the segments.

Segment Adjusted EBITDA is the measure reported to the CODM for purposes of making decisions on allocating resources and assessing the performance of the Company's segments, and, therefore, Segment Adjusted EBITDA is presented in conformity with ASC 280, Segment Reporting. Segment Adjusted EBITDA is defined as earnings (loss) from operations before interest, income tax expense (benefit), depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") adjusted to exclude stock-based compensation, and net other income (expense).

Corporate and unallocated expenses consists of the corporate overhead costs that are not allocated to reportable segments. These overhead costs relate to human resources, finance, legal, accounting, merger and acquisition activity, and other costs that are not considered when management evaluates segment performance.

12. Income Taxes

The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2019, was 33%. The Company reported an overall tax benefit on a pretax loss for the three months ended March 31, 2019. The losses of the Company's foreign entities for the three months ended March 31, 2019, were $6.1 million. The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2019, was positively impacted by equity compensation excess tax benefits and state income tax benefits on domestic loss.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2018, was 17%. The losses of the Company's foreign entities for the three months ended March 31, 2018, were $1.8 million. The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2018, was negatively impacted by losses in certain foreign jurisdictions taxed at lower rates and domestic taxes resulting from the current GILTI tax, partially offset by equity compensation tax benefits.

The Company's effective tax rate could fluctuate on a quarterly basis due to the occurrence of significant and unusual or infrequent items, such as vesting of stock-based compensation or foreign currency gains and losses. The Company's effective tax rate could also fluctuate due to changes in the valuation of its deferred tax assets or liabilities, or by changes in tax laws, regulations, accounting principles, or interpretations thereof. In addition, the Company is occasionally subject to examination of its income tax returns by tax authorities in the jurisdictions it operates. The Company regularly assesses the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations to determine the adequacy of its provision for income taxes.

As of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, the amount of unrecognized tax benefits for uncertain tax positions was $28.3 million and $28.4 million, respectively, excluding related liabilities for interest and penalties of $1.2 million as of March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018.

The Company believes it is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits will decrease within the next 12 months by approximately $3.9 million, due to the settlement of various audits and the expiration of statutes of limitation.

13. Leases

The Company has operating leases for corporate offices and datacenters. Excluding office leases, leases with an initial term of 12 months or less (that do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset) are not recorded on the condensed consolidated balance sheet, and are expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company's leases typically include certain renewal options to extend the leases for up to 25 years, some of which include options to terminate the leases within one year. The exercise of lease renewal options is at the Company's sole discretion. The Company combines lease and non-lease components of its leases and currently has no leases with options to purchase the leased property. The Company accounts for payments of maintenance and property tax costs paid by it as variable lease cost, which are expensed as incurred.

The components of lease cost are as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2019
Operating lease cost	$ 4,036
Variable lease cost	986
Sublease income	(139)
Total lease cost	$ 4,883

Supplemental cash flow information related to leases is as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2019
Cash paid for amounts included in the measurement of lease liabilities:
Operating cash flows from operating leases	$ 5,411
Right-of-use assets obtained in exchange for new lease obligations:
Operating leases	1,218

Supplemental balance sheet information related to leases is as follows (in thousands, except lease term and discount rate):

	March 31, 2019
Assets:
Operating lease right-of-use assets	$ 60,978
Liabilities:
Other current liabilities	$ 14,334
Operating lease liabilities	50,636
Total operating lease liabilities	$ 64,970
Weighted average remaining operating lease term	7.02
Weighted average operating lease discount rate	3.96%

The Company uses its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate. As the Company enters into operating leases in multiple jurisdictions and denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar, judgment is used to determine the Company's incremental borrowing rate including (1) conversion of its subordinated borrowing rate (using published yield curves) to an unsubordinated and collateralized rate (2) adjusting the rate to align with the term of each lease and (3) adjusting the rate to incorporate the effects of the currency in which the lease is denominated.

Maturities on lease liabilities as of March 31, 2019, are as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal year ending December 31,
2019	$12,471
2021	10,915
2022	8,387
2023	6,698
Thereafter	21,122
Total lease payments	74,488
Less: imputed interest	9,518
Total lease liability	$64,970

Future payments under operating lease agreements accounted for under ASC 840, Leases, as of December 31, 2018, were as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal Year Ending December 31,
2019	$16,925
2020	14,212
2021	10,538
2022	8,178
2023	6,529
Thereafter	21,196
Total minimum lease payments	$77,578

As of March 31, 2019, the Company has additional operating leases for office facilities that have not yet commenced with minimum lease payments of $3.7 million. These operating leases will commence between fiscal year 2019 and 2020 with lease terms of one to seven years.

Overview

ACI Worldwide, Inc., the Universal Payments ("UP") company, powers electronic payments for more than 5,100 organizations around the world. More than 1,000 of the largest financial institutions and intermediaries, as well as thousands of leading global merchants, rely on ACI to execute approximately $14 trillion each day in payments and securities. In addition, thousands of organizations utilize our electronic bill payment and presentment ("EBPP") services. Through our comprehensive suite of solutions, we deliver real-time, immediate payments capabilities and enable a complete omni-channel payments experience.

Our products are sold and supported through distribution networks covering three geographic regions – the Americas; Europe, Middle East, and Africa ("EMEA"); and Asia/Pacific. Each distribution network has its own globally coordinated sales force and supplements its sales force with independent reseller and/or distributor networks. Our products and solutions are used globally by banks, financial intermediaries, and merchants and corporates, such as third-party electronic payment processors, payment associations, switch interchanges, and a wide range of transaction-generating endpoints, including ATMs, merchant point-of-sale ("POS") terminals, bank branches, mobile phones, tablets, corporations, and Internet commerce sites. Accordingly, our business and operating results are influenced by trends such as information technology spending levels, the growth rate of electronic payments, mandated regulatory changes, and changes in the number and type of customers in the financial services industry. Our products are marketed under the ACI Worldwide, ACI Universal Payment, and ACI UP brands.

We derive a majority of our revenues from domestic operations and believe we have large opportunities for growth in international markets as well as continued expansion domestically in the United States. Refining our global infrastructure is a critical component of driving our growth. We have launched a globalization strategy, which includes elements intended to streamline our supply chain and maximize expertise in several geographic locations to support a growing international customer base and competitive needs. We utilize our Irish subsidiaries to manage certain of our intellectual property rights and to oversee and manage certain international product development and commercialization efforts. We increased our SaaS and PaaS capabilities with a data center in Ireland allowing our SaaS and PaaS solutions to be more-broadly offered in the European market. We also continue to grow centers of expertise in Timisoara, Romania and Pune and Bangalore in India, as well as key operational centers such as Cape Town, South Africa and in multiple locations in the United States.

Key trends that currently impact our strategies and operations include:

Increasing electronic payment transaction volumes. Electronic payment volumes continue to increase around the world, taking market share from traditional cash and check transactions. In their World Payments Report, Capgemini predicts non-cash transaction volumes will grow at an annual rate of 12.7%, or from 482.5 billion in 2016 to 876.4 billion in 2021, with varying growth rates based on the type of payment and part of the world. We leverage the growth in transaction volumes through the licensing of new systems to customers whose older systems cannot handle increased volume and through the sale of capacity upgrades to existing customers.

Adoption of real-time payments. Customer expectations, from both consumers and corporate, are driving the payments world to more real-time delivery. In the U.K., payments sent through the traditional ACH multi-day batch service can now be sent through the Faster Payments service giving almost immediate access to the funds, and this is being considered and implemented in several countries including Australia and the United States. In the U.S. market, National Automated Clearinghouse Association ("NACHA") implemented phase 2 of Same Day ACH in September 2017. Corporate customers expect real-time information on the status of their payments instead of waiting for an end of-day report. Regulators expect banks to be monitoring key measures like liquidity in real time. ACI's focus has always been on the real-time execution of transactions and delivery of information through real-time tools, such as dashboards, so our experience will be valuable in addressing this trend.

Increasing competition. The electronic payments market is highly competitive and subject to rapid change. Our competition comes from in-house information technology departments, third-party electronic payment processors, and third-party software companies located both within and outside of the United States. Many of these companies are significantly larger than us and have significantly greater financial, technical, and marketing resources. As electronic payment transaction volumes increase, third-party processors tend to provide competition to our solutions, particularly among customers that do not seek to differentiate their electronic payment offerings or are eliminating banks from the payments service, reducing the need for our solutions. As consolidation in the financial services industry continues, we anticipate that competition for those customers will intensify.

Adoption of cloud technology. To leverage lower-cost computing technologies, some banks, financial intermediaries, merchants and corporates are seeking to transition their systems to make use of cloud technology. Our investments provide us the grounding to deliver cloud capabilities in the future. Market sizing data from Ovum indicates that spend on SaaS and PaaS payment systems is growing faster than spend on installed applications.

Electronic payments fraud and compliance. As electronic payment transaction volumes increase, organized criminal organizations continue to find ways to commit a growing volume of fraudulent transactions using a wide range of techniques. Banks, financial intermediaries, and merchants and corporates continue to seek ways to leverage new technologies to identify and prevent fraudulent transactions and other attacks such as denial of service attacks. Due to concerns with international terrorism and money laundering, banks and financial intermediaries in particular are being faced with increasing scrutiny and regulatory pressures. We continue to see opportunity to offer our fraud detection solutions to help customers manage the growing levels of electronic payments fraud and compliance activity.

Adoption of smartcard technology. In many markets, card issuers are being required to issue new cards with embedded chip technology, with the liability shift having gone into effect in 2015 in the United States. Chip-based cards are more secure, harder to copy, and offer the opportunity for multiple functions on one card (e.g., debit, credit, electronic purse, identification, health records, etc.). This results in greater card-not-present fraud (e.g., fraud at eCommerce sites).

Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA). The SEPA, primarily focused on the European economic community and the U.K., is designed to facilitate lower costs for cross-border payments and reduce timeframes for settling electronic payment transactions. The transition to SEPA payment mechanisms will drive more volume to these systems with the potential to cause banks to review the capabilities of the systems supporting these payments. Our Retail Payments and Real-Time Payments solutions facilitate key functions that help banks and financial intermediaries address these mandated regulations.

European Payment Service Directive (PSD2). PSD2, which was ratified by the European Parliament in 2015, required member states to implement new payments regulations in 2018. The XS2A provision effectively creates a new market opportunity where banks in European Union member countries must provide open API standards to customer data, thus allowing authorized third-party providers to enter the market.

Financial institution consolidation. Consolidation continues on a national and international basis, as financial institutions seek to add market share and increase overall efficiency. Such consolidations have increased, and may continue to increase, in their number, size, and market impact as a result of recent economic conditions affecting the banking and financial industries. There are several potential negative effects of increased consolidation activity. Continuing consolidation of financial institutions may result in a smaller number of existing and potential customers for our products and services. Consolidation of two of our customers could result in reduced revenues if the combined entity were to negotiate greater volume discounts or discontinue use of certain of our products. Additionally, if a non-customer and a customer combine and the combined entity decides to forego future use of our products, our revenue would decline. Conversely, we could benefit from the combination of a non-customer and a customer when the combined entity continues use of our products and, as a larger combined entity, increases its demand for our products and services. We tend to focus on larger financial institutions as customers, often resulting in our solutions being the solutions that survive in the consolidated entity.

Global vendor sourcing. Global and regional banks, financial intermediaries, and merchants and corporates are aiming to reduce the costs in supplier management by picking suppliers who can service them across all their geographies instead of allowing each country operation to choose suppliers independently. Our global footprint from both a customer and a delivery perspective enable us to be successful in this global sourced market. However, projects in these environments tend to be more complex and therefore of higher risk.

Electronic payments convergence. As electronic payment volumes grow and pressures to lower overall cost per transaction increase, banks and financial intermediaries are seeking methods to consolidate their payments processing across the enterprise. We believe that the strategy of using service-oriented architectures to allow for re-use of common electronic payment functions, such as authentication, authorization, routing and settlement, will become more common. Using these techniques, banks and financial intermediaries will be able to reduce costs, increase overall service levels, enable one-to-one marketing in multiple bank channels, leverage volumes for improved pricing and liquidity, and manage enterprise risk. Our product strategy is, in part, focused on this trend, by creating integrated payment functions that can be re-used by multiple bank channels, across both the consumer and wholesale bank. While this trend presents an opportunity for us, it may also expand the competition from third-party electronic payment technology and service providers specializing in other forms of electronic payments. Many of these providers are larger than us and have significantly greater financial, technical and marketing resources.

Mobile banking and payments. There is a growing demand for the ability to carry out banking services or make payments using a mobile phone. Recent statistics from Javelin Strategy & Research, a subsidiary of Greenwich Associates, show that 50% of adults in the United States use their phone for mobile banking. The use of phones for mobile banking is expected to grow to 81% in 2020. Our customers have been making use of existing products to deploy mobile banking, mobile payments, and mobile commerce solutions for their customers in many countries. In addition, ACI has invested in mobile products of our own and via partnerships to support mobile functionality in the marketplace.

Electronic bill payment and presentment. EBPP encompasses all facets of bill payment, including biller direct, where customers initiate payments on biller websites, the consolidator model, where customers initiate payments on a financial institution's website, and walk-in bill payment, as one might find in a convenience store. The EBPP market continues to grow as consumers move away from traditional forms of paper-based payments. Nearly three out of four (73%) online payments are made at the billers' sites, rather than through banking websites, up 11% since 2010. The biller-direct solutions are seeing strong growth as billers migrate these services to outsourcers, such as ACI, from legacy systems built in house. We believe that EBPP remains ripe for outsourcing, as a significant amount of biller-direct transactions are still processed in house. As billers seek to manage costs and improve efficiency, we believe that they will continue to look to third-party EBPP vendors that can offer a complete solution for their billing needs.

Several other factors related to our business may have a significant impact on our operating results from year to year. For example, the accounting rules governing the timing of revenue recognition are complex and it can be difficult to estimate when we will recognize revenue generated by a given transaction. Factors such as creditworthiness of the customer and timing of transfer of control or acceptance of our products may cause revenues related to sales generated in one period to be deferred and recognized in later periods. For arrangements in which services revenue is deferred, related direct and incremental costs may also be deferred. Additionally, while the majority of our contracts are denominated in the U.S. dollar, a substantial portion of our sales are made, and some of our expenses are incurred, in the local currency of countries other than the United States. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates in a given period may result in the recognition of gains or losses for that period.

We continue to seek ways to grow through organic sources, partnerships, alliances, and acquisitions. We continually look for potential acquisitions designed to improve our solutions' breadth or provide access to new markets. As part of our acquisition strategy, we seek acquisition candidates that are strategic, capable of being integrated into our operating environment, and accretive to our financial performance.

Acquisition

Speedpay

On May 9, 2019, we acquired Speedpay, the U.S. bill pay business of Western Union Company ("WU") for $750.0 million in cash, subject to adjustments, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, among the Company, WU, and ACI Worldwide Corp., our wholly owned subsidiary. The combination of the Company and Speedpay bill pay solutions will serve more than 4,000 customers across the U.S., bringing expanded reach in existing and complementary market segments such as consumer finance, insurance, healthcare, higher education, utilities, government, and mortgage. The acquisition of Speedpay will increase the scale of our On Demand platform business and allow the acceleration of platform innovation.

Effective April 5, 2019, we entered into an amendment agreement (the "amendment") with ACI Worldwide Corp., Official Payments Corporation, the lenders, and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent for the lenders, to amend and restate our Credit Agreement, dated February 24, 2017. The amendment permitted us to borrow up to $500.0 million in the form of a senior secured term loan; extended the revolver and the term loan maturity date from February 24, 2022, to April 5, 2024; and increased the maximum consolidated senior secured net leverage ratio covenant from 3.50:1.00 to 3.75:1.00; among other things. We used the funds from the new term loan, in addition to drawing $250.0 million on the available Revolving Credit Facility, to fund the acquisition.

Backlog

Backlog is comprised of:

- Committed Backlog, which includes (1) contracted revenue that will be recognized in future periods (contracted but not recognized) from software license fees, maintenance fees, services fees, and SaaS and PaaS fees specified in executed contracts (including estimates of variable consideration if required under ASC 606) and included in the transaction price for those contracts, which includes deferred revenue and amounts that will be invoiced and recognized as revenue in future periods and (2) estimated future revenues from software license fees, maintenance fees, services fees, and SaaS and PaaS fees specified in executed contracts.
- Renewal Backlog, which includes estimated future revenues from assumed contract renewals to the extent we believe recognition of the related revenue will occur within the corresponding backlog period.

We have historically included assumed renewals in backlog estimates based upon automatic renewal provisions in the executed contract and our historic experience with customer renewal rates.

Our 60-month backlog estimates are derived using the following key assumptions:

- License arrangements are assumed to renew at the end of their committed term or under the renewal option stated in the contract at a rate consistent with historical experience. If the license arrangement includes extended payment terms, the renewal estimate is adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component.
- Maintenance fees are assumed to exist for the duration of the license term for those contracts in which the committed maintenance term is less than the committed license term.
- SaaS and PaaS arrangements are assumed to renew at the end of their committed term at a rate consistent with our historical experiences.
- Foreign currency exchange rates are assumed to remain constant over the 60-month backlog period for those contracts stated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar.
- Our pricing policies and practices are assumed to remain constant over the 60-month backlog period.

In computing our 60-month backlog estimate, the following items are specifically not taken into account:

- Anticipated increases in transaction, account, or processing volumes by our customers.
- Optional annual uplifts or inflationary increases in recurring fees.
- Services engagements, other than SaaS and PaaS arrangements, are not assumed to renew over the 60-month backlog period.
- The potential impact of consolidation activity within our markets and/or customers.

We review our customer renewal experience on an annual basis. The impact of this review and subsequent updates may result in a revision to the renewal assumptions used in computing the 60-month backlog estimates. In the event a significant revision to renewal assumptions is determined to be necessary, prior periods will be adjusted for comparability purposes.

The following table sets forth our 60-month backlog estimate, by reportable segment, as of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018 (in millions). Dollar amounts reflect foreign currency exchange rates as of each period end.

	March 31, 2019	December 31, 2018
ACI On Premise	$ 1,861	$ 1,875
ACI On Demand	2,290	2,299
Total	$ 4,151	$ 4,174
	March 31, 2019	December 31, 2018
Committed	$ 1,734	$ 1,832
Renewal	2,417	2,342
Total	$ 4,151	$ 4,174

Estimates of future financial results require substantial judgment and are based on several assumptions, as described above. These assumptions may turn out to be inaccurate or wrong for reasons outside of management's control. For example, our customers may attempt to renegotiate or terminate their contracts for many reasons, including mergers, changes in their financial condition, or general changes in economic conditions in the customer's industry or geographic location. We may also experience delays in the development or delivery of products or services specified in customer contracts, which may cause the actual renewal rates and amounts to differ from historical experiences. Changes in foreign currency exchange rates may also impact the amount of revenue recognized in future periods. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that amounts included in backlog estimates will generate the specified revenues or that the actual revenues will be generated within the corresponding 60-month period. Additionally, because certain components of Committed Backlog and all of Renewal Backlog estimates are operating metrics, the estimates are not required to be subject to the same level of internal review or controls as contracted but not recognized Committed Backlog.

Revenues

Total revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, decreased $3.5 million, or 2%, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Total revenue was $3.7 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, total revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, was flat compared to the same period in 2018.

Software as a Service ("SaaS") and Platform as a Service ("PaaS") Revenue

The Company's SaaS arrangements allow customers to use certain software solutions (without taking possession of the software) in a single-tenant cloud environment on a subscription basis. The Company's PaaS arrangements allow customers to use certain software solutions (without taking possession of the software) in a multi-tenant cloud environment on a subscription or consumption basis. Included in SaaS and PaaS revenue are fees paid by our customers for use of our Biller solutions. Biller-related fees may be paid by our clients or directly by their customers and may be a percentage of the underlying transaction amount, a fixed fee per executed transaction or a monthly fee for each customer enrolled. SaaS and PaaS costs include payment card interchange fees, the amounts payable to banks and payment card processing fees, which are included in cost of revenue in the condensed consolidated statements of operations. All revenue from SaaS and PaaS arrangements that does not qualify for treatment as a distinct performance obligation, which includes set-up fees, implementation or customization services, and product support services, are included in SaaS and PaaS revenue.

SaaS and PaaS revenue increased $4.3 million, or 4%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Total SaaS and PaaS revenue was $0.9 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018 due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, total SaaS and PaaS revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $5.2 million, or 5%, compared to the same period in 2018, which is primarily attributable to new customers adopting our SaaS and PaaS offerings and existing customers adding new functionality or increasing transaction volumes.

License Revenue

Customers purchase the right to license ACI software under multi-year, time-based software license arrangements that vary in length but are generally five years. Under these arrangements the software is installed at the customer's location (i.e. on-premise). Within these agreements are specified capacity limits typically based on customer transaction volume. ACI employs measurement tools that monitor the number of transactions processed by customers and if contractually specified limits are exceeded, additional fees are charged for the overage. Capacity overages may occur at varying times throughout the term of the agreement depending on the product, the size of the customer, and the significance of customer transaction volume growth. Depending on specific circumstances, multiple overages or no overages may occur during the term of the agreement.

Included in license revenue are license and capacity fees that are payable at the inception of the agreement or annually (initial license fees). License revenue also includes license and capacity fees payable quarterly or monthly due to negotiated customer payment terms (monthly license fees). The Company recognizes revenue in advance of billings for software license arrangements with extended payment terms and adjusts for the effects of the financing component, if significant.

Total license revenue decreased $7.0 million, or 25%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Total license revenue was $0.7 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018 due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, total license revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, decreased $6.3 million, or 22%, compared to the same period in 2018.

The decrease in total license revenue was primarily driven by the timing and relative size of license and capacity events during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Maintenance Revenue

Maintenance revenue includes standard and premium maintenance and any post contract support fees received from customers for the provision of product support services.

Maintenance revenue decreased $1.5 million, or 3%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Total maintenance revenue was $1.6 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018 due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, total maintenance revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, remained flat compared to the same period in 2018.

Services Revenue

Services revenue includes fees earned through implementation services and other professional services. Implementation services include product installations, product configurations, and custom software modifications ("CSMs"). Other professional services include business consultancy, technical consultancy, on-site support services, CSMs, product education, and testing services. These services include new customer implementations as well as existing customer migrations to new products or new releases of existing products.

Services revenue increased $0.8 million, or 4%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Total services revenue was $0.5 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018 due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, total services revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $1.3 million, or 6%, compared to the same period in 2018.

Operating Expenses

Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $7.9 million, or 4%, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2019, included $4.7 million of significant transaction-related expenses associated with the planned acquisition of Speedpay. Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2018, included $4.3 million of significant integration and divestiture-related expenses. Total operating expenses were $5.3 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the significant acquisition and integration related expenses and the impact of foreign currency, total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $12.8 million, or 6%, compared to the same period in 2018, primarily due to higher cost of revenue, general and administrative, and depreciation and amortization expenses, partially offset by lower selling and marketing.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenue includes costs to provide SaaS and PaaS services, third-party royalties, amortization of purchased and developed software for resale, the costs of maintaining our software products, as well as the costs required to deliver, install, and support software at customer sites. SaaS and PaaS service costs include payment card interchange fees, amounts payable to banks, and payment card processing fees. Maintenance costs include the efforts associated with providing the customer with upgrades, 24-hour help desk, post go-live (remote) support, and production-type support for software that was previously installed at a customer location. Service costs include human resource costs and other incidental costs such as travel and training required for both pre go-live and post go-live support. Such efforts include project management, delivery, product customization and implementation, installation support, consulting, configuration, and on-site support.

Cost of revenue increased $7.6 million, or 7%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018. Cost of revenue was $1.9 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, cost of revenue increased $9.5 million, or 9%, for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, primarily due to a $5.1 million increase in payment card interchange and processing fees, a $2.5 million increase in third-party product royalty expenses, and a $1.9 million increase in personnel and related expenses.

Research and Development

Research and development (“R&D”) expenses are primarily human resource costs related to the creation of new products, improvements made to existing products as well as compatibility with new operating system releases and generations of hardware.

R&D expense decreased $0.6 million, or 2%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. R&D expense was $1.4 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, R&D expense increased $0.8 million, or 2%, for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, primarily due to an increase in personnel and related expenses.

Selling and Marketing

Selling and marketing includes both the costs related to selling our products to current and prospective customers as well as the costs related to promoting the Company, its products and the research efforts required to measure customers’ future needs and satisfaction levels. Selling costs are primarily the human resource and travel costs related to the effort expended to license our products and services to current and potential clients within defined territories and/or industries as well as the management of the overall relationship with customer accounts. Selling costs also include the costs associated with assisting distributors in their efforts to sell our products and services in their respective local markets. Marketing costs include costs incurred to promote the Company and its products, perform or acquire market research to help the Company better understand impending changes in customer demand for and of our products, and the costs associated with measuring customers’ opinions toward the Company, our products and personnel.

Selling and marketing expense decreased $2.5 million, or 8%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Selling and marketing expense was $1.0 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, selling and marketing expense decreased $1.4 million, or 5%, for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to a decrease in personnel and related expenses, primarily as the result of a decrease in total bookings.

General and Administrative

General and administrative expenses are primarily human resource costs including executive salaries and benefits, personnel administration costs, and the costs of corporate support functions such as legal, administrative, human resources, and finance and accounting.

General and administrative expense increased $2.9 million, or 10%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. General and administrative expense for the three months ended March 31, 2019, included $4.7 million of significant transaction-related expenses associated with the planned acquisition of Speedpay. General and administrative expense was $0.6 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the significant acquisition and integration expenses and the impact of foreign currency, general and administrative expense increased $2.7 million, or 11%, for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to an increase in personnel and related expenses.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization increased $0.5 million, or 2%, during the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018. Depreciation and amortization was $0.4 million lower for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018, due to the impact of foreign currencies weakening against the U.S. dollar. Excluding the impact of foreign currency, depreciation and amortization increased $0.9 million, or 4%, for the three months ended March 31, 2019, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Other Income and Expense

Interest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $2.2 million, or 24%, as compared to the same period in 2018, primarily due to $1.8 million of interest expense related to royalty payments. Excluding the impact of interest expense related to royalty payments, interest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $0.4 million, or 5%, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Interest income includes the portion of software license fees paid by customers under extended payment terms that is attributed to the significant financing component. Interest income for the three months ended March 31, 2019, increased $0.3 million, as compared to the same period in 2018.

Other, net consists of foreign currency loss and other non-operating items. Foreign currency loss for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, was $1.9 million and $0.1 million, respectively.

Segment Results

We report financial performance based on our segments, ACI On Premise and ACI On Demand, and analyze Segment Adjusted EBITDA as a measure of segment profitability.

Our Chief Executive Officer is also our chief operating decision maker (“CODM”). The CODM, together with other senior management personnel, focus their review on consolidated financial information and the allocation of resources based on operating results, including revenues and Segment Adjusted EBITDA, for each segment, separate from the corporate operations.

ACI On Premise serves customers who manage their software on site. These on-premise customers use the Company’s software to develop sophisticated solutions, which are often part of a larger system located and managed at the customer specified site. These customers require a level of control and flexibility that ACI On Premise solutions can offer, and they have the resources and expertise to take a lead role in managing these solutions.

ACI On Demand serves the needs of banks, merchants and corporates who use payments to facilitate their core business. These on-demand solutions are maintained and delivered through the cloud via our global data centers and are available in either a single-tenant environment for SaaS offerings, or in a multi-tenant environment for PaaS offerings.

Revenue is attributed to the reportable segments based upon the product sold and mechanism for delivery to the customer. Expenses are attributed to the reportable segments in one of three methods, (1) direct costs of the segment, (2) labor costs that can be attributed based upon time tracking for individual products, or (3) costs that are allocated. Allocated costs are generally marketing and sales related activities as well as information technology and facilities related expense for which multiple segments benefit. We also allocate certain depreciation costs to the segments.

Segment Adjusted EBITDA is the measure reported to the CODM for purposes of making decisions on allocating resources and assessing the performance of our segments and, therefore, Segment Adjusted EBITDA is presented in conformity with ASC 280, Segment Reporting. Segment Adjusted EBITDA is defined as earnings (loss) from operations before interest, income tax expense (benefit), depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) adjusted to exclude stock-based compensation, and net other income (expense).

Corporate and unallocated expenses consists of the corporate overhead costs that are not allocated to reportable segments. These overhead costs relate to human resources, finance, legal, accounting, merger and acquisition activity, and other costs that are not considered when management evaluates segment performance.

ACI On Demand Segment Adjusted EBITDA increased $4.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018, primarily due to a $5.6 million increase in revenues, a $2.0 million decrease in selling and marketing expense, partially offset by a $5.1 million increase in payment card interchange and processing fees.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

General

Our primary liquidity needs are: (i) to fund normal operating expenses; (ii) to meet the interest and principal requirements of our outstanding indebtedness; and (iii) to fund acquisitions, capital expenditures, and lease payments. We believe these needs will be satisfied using cash flow generated by our operations, our cash and cash equivalents, and available borrowings under our revolving credit facility.

Available Liquidity

The following table sets forth our available liquidity for the periods indicated (in thousands):

	March 31, 2019	December 31, 2018
Cash and cash equivalents	$176,173	$ 148,502
Availability under revolving credit facility	500,000	500,000
Total liquidity	$676,173	$ 648,502

The increase in total liquidity is primarily attributable to positive operating cash flows of $42.4 million, offset by $9.8 million of payments to purchase property and equipment and software and distribution rights.

Cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. As of March 31, 2019, we had $176.2 million of cash and cash equivalents, of which $79.7 million was held by our foreign subsidiaries. If these funds were needed for our operations in the U.S., we may potentially be required to accrue and pay foreign and U.S. state income taxes to repatriate these funds. As of March 31, 2019, only the earnings in our Indian foreign subsidiaries are indefinitely reinvested. The earnings of all other foreign entities are no longer indefinitely reinvested. We are also permanently reinvested for outside book/tax basis difference related to foreign subsidiaries. These outside basis differences could reverse through sales of the foreign subsidiaries, as well as various other events, none of which are considered probable as of March 31, 2019.

Cash Flows

The following table sets forth summarized cash flow data for the periods indicated (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2019	2018
Net cash provided by (used by):
Operating activities	$42,427	$ 45,136
Investing activities	(9,828)	(12,589)
Financing activities	(5,361)	(29,695)

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Net cash flows provided by operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2019, were $42.4 million as compared to $45.1 million during the same period in 2018. The comparative period decrease was primarily due to a higher net loss for the three months ended March 31, 2019, compared to the same period in 2018, as well as timing of receipts and payments. Our current policy is to use our operating cash flow primarily for funding capital expenditures, lease payments, stock repurchases, and acquisitions.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

During the first three months of 2019, we used cash of $9.8 million to purchase software, property and equipment, as compared to $12.6 million during the same period in 2018.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash flows used by financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2019, were $5.4 million as compared to $29.7 million during the same period in 2018. During the first three months of 2019, we repaid $5.9 million on the Term Credit Facility. In addition, we received proceeds of $5.7 million from the exercise of stock options and the issuance of common stock under our 2017 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as amended, and used $2.6 million for the repurchase of restricted share awards (“RSAs”) and restricted share units (“RSUs”) for tax withholdings. We also used $0.6 million to repurchase common stock. During the first three months of 2018, we repaid $5.2 million on the Term Credit Facility and repaid a net $2.0 million on the Revolving Credit Facility. In addition, we received proceeds of $9.9 million from the exercise of stock options and the issuance of common stock under our 2017 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as amended, and used $0.9 million for the repurchase of RSAs for tax withholdings. We also used $31.1 million to repurchase common stock.

We may decide to use cash to acquire new products and services or enhance existing products and services through acquisitions of other companies, product lines, technologies, and personnel, or through investments in other companies.

We believe our existing sources of liquidity, including cash on hand and cash provided by operating activities, will satisfy our projected liquidity requirements, which primarily consists of working capital requirements, for the next twelve months and foreseeable future.

Debt

As of March 31, 2019, we had $279.0 million outstanding under our Term Credit Facility, with up to $500.0 million of unused borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility portion of the Credit Agreement, as amended. The interest rate in effect as of March 31, 2019, was 4.25%. As of March 31, 2019, we also had $400.0 million outstanding of 5.750% Senior Notes due 2026 (the “2026 Notes”). Refer to Note 4, Debt, to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in Part I of this Form 10-Q for additional information.

Stock Repurchase Program

In 2005, our board of directors (“the board”) approved a stock repurchase program authorizing us, as market and business conditions warrant, to acquire our common stock and periodically authorize additional funds for the program. In February 2018, the board approved the repurchase of up to $200.0 million of our common stock in place of the remaining purchase amounts previously authorized.

We repurchased 23,802 shares for $0.6 million under the program during the three months ended March 31, 2019. Under the program to date, we have repurchased 44,153,195 shares for approximately $548.5 million. As of March 31, 2019, the maximum remaining amount authorized for purchase under the stock repurchase program was approximately $176.0 million.

There is no guarantee as to the exact number of shares we will repurchase. Repurchased shares are returned to the status of authorized but unissued shares of common stock. In March 2005, our board approved a plan under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to facilitate the repurchase of shares of common stock under the existing stock repurchase program. Under our Rule 10b5-1 plan, we have delegated authority over the timing and amount of repurchases to an independent broker who does not have access to inside information about the Company. Rule 10b5-1 allows us, through the independent broker, to purchase shares at times when we ordinarily would not be in the market because of self-imposed trading blackout periods, such as the time immediately preceding the end of the fiscal quarter through a period of three business days following our quarterly earnings release.

Contractual Obligations and Commercial Commitments

For the three months ended March 31, 2019, there have been no material changes to the contractual obligations and commercial commitments disclosed in Item 7 of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018.

We are unable to reasonably estimate the ultimate amount or timing of settlement of our reserves for income taxes under Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740, Income Tax. The liability for unrecognized tax benefits as of March 31, 2019, is $28.3 million.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements requires we make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. We base our estimates on historical experience and other assumptions we believe to be proper and reasonable under the circumstances. We continually evaluate the appropriateness of estimates and assumptions used in the preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The accounting policies that reflect our more significant estimates, judgments, and assumptions, and that we believe are the most critical to aid in fully understanding and evaluating our reported financial results, include the following:

- Revenue Recognition
- Business Combinations
- Intangible Assets and Goodwill
- Stock-Based Compensation
- Accounting for Income Taxes

During the three months ended March 31, 2019, there were no significant changes to our critical accounting policies and estimates. Please refer to Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contained in Part II, Item 7 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, filed on March 1, 2019, for a more complete discussion of our critical accounting policies and estimates.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Excluding the impact of changes in interest rates and the uncertainty in the global financial markets, there have been no material changes to our market risk for the three months ended March 31, 2019. We conduct business in all parts of the world and are thereby exposed to market risks related to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. The U.S. dollar is the single largest currency in which our revenue contracts are denominated. Any decline in the value of local foreign currencies against the U.S. dollar results in our products and services being more expensive to a potential foreign customer. In those instances where our goods and services have already been sold, receivables may be more difficult to collect. Additionally, in jurisdictions where the revenue contracts are denominated in U.S. dollars and operating expenses are incurred in the local currency, any decline in the value of the U.S. dollar will have an unfavorable impact to operating margins. At times, we enter into revenue contracts that are denominated in the country’s local currency, primarily in Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, and other European countries. This practice serves as a natural hedge to finance the local currency expenses incurred in those locations. We have not entered into any foreign currency hedging transactions. We do not purchase or hold any derivative financial instruments for speculation or arbitrage.

The primary objective of our cash investment policy is to preserve principal without significantly increasing risk. If we maintained similar cash investments for a period of one year based on our cash investments and interest rates on these investments at March 31, 2019, a hypothetical ten percent increase or decrease in effective interest rates would increase or decrease interest income by approximately $0.1 million annually.

We had approximately $679.0 million of debt outstanding as of March 31, 2019, with $400.0 million in Senior Notes and $279.0 million outstanding under our Credit Facility. Our 2026 Notes are fixed-rate long-term debt obligations with a 5.750% interest rate. Our Credit Facility has a floating rate, which was 4.25% as of March 31, 2019. A hypothetical ten percent increase or decrease in effective interest rates would increase or decrease interest expense related to the Credit Facility by approximately $1.2 million.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Management, under the supervision and with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, performed an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded our disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of March 31, 2019.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

We adopted ASC 842, Leases, on January 1, 2019, which required management to make changes to our policies and processes and to implement new or modify existing internal controls over financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2019. This included modifications to our existing controls over the review of supplier contracts and other agreements, the implementation of a new lease accounting system, and new controls related to disclosure requirements.

There were no additional changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the quarter ended March 31, 2019, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

From time to time, we are involved in various litigation matters arising in the ordinary course of our business. We are not currently a party to any legal proceedings, the adverse outcome of which, individually or in the aggregate, we believe would be likely to have a material effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

There have been no material changes to the risk factors disclosed in Item 1A of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018. Additional risks and uncertainties, including risks and uncertainties not presently known to us, or that we currently deem immaterial, could also have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and/or results of operations.

ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDSIssuer Purchases of Equity Securities

The following table provides information regarding our repurchases of common stock during the three months ended March 31, 2019:

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Program	Approximate Dollar Value of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under the Program
January 1, 2019 through January 31, 2019	23,802	$ 26.50	23,802	$175,956,000
February 1, 2019 through February 28, 2019	84,152 (1)	31.18	—	175,956,000
March 1, 2019 through March 31, 2019	—	—	—	175,956,000
Total	107,954	$ 30.15	23,802

- (1) Pursuant to our 2005 Incentive Plan, we granted RSAs and RSUs. Under each arrangement, shares are issued without direct cost to the employee. During the three months ended March 31, 2019, 272,316 shares of the RSAs and RSUs vested. We withheld 84,152 of those shares to pay the employees' portion of the applicable payroll taxes.

In fiscal 2005, our board approved a stock repurchase program authorizing us, as market and business conditions warrant, to acquire our common stock and periodically authorize additional funds for the program, with the intention of using existing cash and cash equivalents to fund these repurchases. In February 2018, the board approved the repurchase of up to $200.0 million of our common stock in place of the remaining purchase amounts previously authorized. As of March 31, 2019, the maximum remaining amount authorized for purchase under the stock repurchase program was approximately $176.0 million.

There is no guarantee as to the exact number of shares we will repurchase. Repurchased shares are returned to the status of authorized but unissued shares of common stock. In March 2005, our board approved a plan under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to facilitate the repurchase of shares of common stock under the existing stock repurchase program. Under our Rule 10b5-1 plan, we have delegated authority over the timing and amount of repurchases to an independent broker who does not have access to inside information about the Company. Rule 10b5-1 allows us, through the independent broker, to purchase shares at times when we ordinarily would not be in the market because of self-imposed trading blackout periods, such as the time immediately preceding the end of the fiscal quarter through a period of three business days following our quarterly earnings release.

(b) After delivery of the Adjustment Report to Seller, Seller and/or a firm of independent public accountants designated by Seller ("Seller's Accountants") shall be entitled to reasonable access during normal business hours to the relevant records and working papers of Buyer to aid in their review of the Adjustment Report. The Adjustment Report shall be deemed to be accepted by Seller and shall be conclusive for purposes of determining the Adjustment Amount except to the extent, if any, that Seller or Seller's Accountants shall have delivered within 30 days after the date on which the Adjustment Report is delivered to Seller, a written notice to Buyer stating each and every item to which Seller takes exception, specifying in reasonable detail the nature and extent of any such exception (it being understood that any portion of the Adjustment Amounts that is not disputed shall be deemed final). If a change proposed by Seller is disputed by Buyer, then Seller and Buyer shall negotiate in good faith to resolve such dispute. If, after a period of 30 days following the date on which Seller gives Buyer notice of any such proposed change, any such proposed change still remains disputed, then Buyer and Seller shall engage PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, or, if PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is unwilling or unavailable, another independent firm of public accountants of nationally recognized standing mutually acceptable to Buyer and Seller (the "Accounting Firm") to resolve any remaining disputes. The Accounting Firm shall act as an arbitrator to determine, based solely on presentations by Buyer and Seller, and not by independent review, only those issues still in dispute with respect to the Adjustment Amount. The decision of the Accounting Firm shall be final and binding and shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.5. All of the fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be paid by Buyer and Seller in inverse proportion as they may prevail on the disputed items resolved by the Accounting Firm, utilizing the values of such items as initially submitted by the parties to the Accounting Firm. Such proportional allocations shall be determined by the Accounting Firm at the time its determination is rendered on the disputed items.

(c) Any Adjustment Amount shall be paid within five business days following the Adjustment Report Finalization Date as follows:

- (i) if the Estimated Adjustment Amount equals the Adjustment Amount, no payment shall be made;
- (ii) if the Estimated Adjustment Amount exceeds the Adjustment Amount, as calculated in accordance with this Section 4.5, Seller shall pay to Buyer the difference thereof, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified in writing to Seller by Buyer; and
- (iii) if the Adjustment Amount, as calculated in accordance with this Section 4.5, exceeds the Estimated Adjustment Amount, Buyer shall pay to Seller the difference thereof, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts specified in writing to Buyer by Seller.

Any payment required to be made pursuant to this Section 4.5(c) shall be made together with interest thereon from the Closing Date to the date of payment at the rate of interest per annum equal to the 30-day LIBOR in effect on the Closing Date as reported in The Wall Street Journal.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

As an inducement to Buyer to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the Contemplated Transactions, except as set forth on the Schedules (it being understood and agreed that any disclosure on a Schedule shall qualify all of the representations and warranties in this Article V to the extent the applicability of such information and disclosure is reasonably apparent on its face), Seller hereby represents and warrants to Buyer as follows:

Section 5.1. Organization of Seller. Seller is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware.

Section 5.2. Organization; Capital Structure of the Companies; Power and Authority.

(a) Each of the Companies is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of New York. Each of the Companies is duly qualified to transact business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualifications necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, be material and adverse to the Business. Each of the Companies has the corporate power and corporate authority to own or lease and operate its assets and to carry on the Business in the manner as it is currently being conducted, except as would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, be material and adverse to the Business. Seller has made available to Buyer true, correct and complete copies of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of each Company, in each case, as amended and in effect on the date hereof.

(b) As of the date hereof, each of the Companies has the authorized, issued and outstanding equity as set forth on Schedule 5.2(b). Seller owns all the outstanding equity of ECG, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than those Encumbrances imposed by federal or state securities laws. ECG owns all of the outstanding equity of Sprint, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than those Encumbrances imposed by federal or state securities laws. All such equity is duly authorized, validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. Except for this Agreement, there are no commitments to issue or sell any shares of capital stock or equity or any securities or obligations convertible into or exchangeable for, or giving any Person any right to acquire from Seller or either of the Companies, any shares of capital stock or equity of either of the Companies, and no such securities or obligations are outstanding. There are no outstanding options, warrants, calls or any other similar rights or any other agreements relating to the sale, issuance, transfer or voting of any shares of the capital stock or other equity interests of either Company to which such Company is party, or any securities, agreements or other instruments directly or indirectly convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for or evidencing the right to purchase any shares of capital stock or other equity interests of such Company, other than this Agreement.

(c) Neither of the Companies owns, or has any obligation to acquire or make an investment in, any equity interest in any other Person. There are no phantom stock, or stock appreciation, profit participation or similar rights, obligations or arrangements outstanding issued by either Company. ECG has no Subsidiaries other than Sprint, and Sprint has no Subsidiaries.

Section 5.3. Authority of Seller; Conflicts.

(a) Seller has the corporate power and corporate authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and each of the Seller Ancillary Agreements. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Seller Ancillary Agreements by Seller have been duly authorized and approved by Seller's board of directors and do not require any further authorization or consent of Seller or its stockholders. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by Seller and (assuming the valid authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Buyer) is the legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, and each of the Seller Ancillary Agreements has been duly authorized by Seller and upon execution and delivery by Seller shall be (assuming the valid authorization, execution and delivery by Buyer, where Buyer is a party, or the other party or parties thereto) a legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, subject, in the case of this Agreement and each of the Seller Ancillary Agreements, to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar Laws of general application relating to or affecting creditors' rights and general equity principles.

(b) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.3, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement or any of the Seller Ancillary Agreements or the consummation of any of the Contemplated Transactions nor compliance with or fulfillment of the terms, conditions and provisions hereof or thereof will:

(i) result in a breach of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default, an event of default or an event creating rights of acceleration, termination or cancellation or a loss of rights under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Encumbrance upon any of the Shares or any of the assets of the Companies, under (A) (1) the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of Seller or either of the Companies, (2) any Business Agreement or Biller Contract, (3) any Court Order to which Seller or either of the Companies is a party or by which Seller, the Business, or either of the Companies is bound or (B) or assuming the receipt of all necessary consents and approvals and the filing of all necessary documents as described in Section 5.3(b)(ii), (1) any Law affecting Seller, the Business or either of the Companies, or (2) any Governmental Permits, other than, in the case of clauses (A)(2), (B)(1) and (B)(2) above, any such breaches, defaults, rights, loss of rights or Encumbrances that would not reasonably be expected to individually or in the aggregate, be material and adverse to the Business, or

(ii) require the approval, consent, authorization or act of, or the making by Seller or either of the Companies of any declaration, filing or registration with, any Person, except (1) in connection, or in compliance, with the provisions of the HSR Act and (2) such approvals, consents, authorizations, declarations, filings or registrations, the failure of which to be obtained or made would not reasonably be expected to be material to the Companies, taken as a whole, or could not prevent the consummation of any of the Contemplated Transactions.

The representations and warranties of Seller herein assume Buyer's representations and warranties in Section 6.3 are true and correct (without giving effect to any knowledge or date limitations therein).

Section 5.4. Financial Statements. The Business is not a separately reported unit of Seller. As a result, the financial statements prepared for the Business are not prepared as part of Seller's normal reporting process. Schedule 5.4 contains the Financial Statements. The Financial Statements were derived from the books and records of Seller from source document subject to the controls and procedures of Seller's accounting systems. The books and records of Seller for which such Financial Statements were derived from were maintained in accordance with GAAP. The Financial Statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and results of operations of the Business, as of their respective dates and for the respective periods covered thereby subject, in the case of the Interim Financial Statements, to normal period-end adjustments, but do not necessarily reflect what the consolidated operations and financial positions of the Business would have been had the Business been operated independently of Seller during the periods presented. Seller, in respect of the Business, has established and maintains a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of the Financial Statements in accordance with GAAP.

Section 5.5. Operations Since Interim Financial Statements Date. Except as set forth on Schedule 5.5, since the Interim Financial Statements Date, (a) there has been no Material Adverse Effect, (b) to the date hereof neither of the Companies nor Seller has taken any action that, if taken after the date hereof and prior to the Closing would require the approval of Buyer under clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix), (x), (xi), (xv) or (xvii) of Section 7.4(b), and (c) to the date hereof Seller and its Subsidiaries have conducted the Business in all material respects in the ordinary course.

(d) All written deficiencies asserted or assessments made as a result of any examination of the Tax Returns referred to in clause (a) by a Taxing authority have been paid in full or otherwise finally resolved.

(e) There are no Encumbrances for Taxes upon assets of the Companies other than Permitted Encumbrances.

(f) All Taxes which the Companies are required by Law to withhold or to collect for payment, including from any employee, shareholder, creditor, holder of securities or other third party, have been duly withheld and collected and have been timely paid to the appropriate Taxing Authority or will be accrued, reserved against and entered on the statement of Closing Date Working Capital, and all IRS Forms W-2 and 1099, and other similar forms required with respect thereto have been properly completed and timely filed.

(g) The Companies do not have any Liability for Taxes of another Person (other than Seller or its Affiliates) under Treasury Regulation §1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of Law), or under any Contract (other than a Contract entered into in the ordinary course of business and not primarily relating to Taxes), or as a transferee or successor under applicable Law.

(l) Neither of the Companies or any of Seller or its Affiliates has requested or received a ruling from any Taxing Authority with respect to Taxes or signed any binding agreement with any Taxing Authority, in each case which could affect either Company’s liability for Taxes for taxable years or periods ending after the Closing Date (other than any liability for Taxes arising as a result of having been a member of a Consolidated Tax Group).

(m) Neither of the Companies shall be required to include any item of income in, or exclude any deduction from, taxable income for any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending after the Closing Date as a result of any: (i) change in method of accounting for a taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any 481 adjustment pursuant to Section 13221(d) of U.S. P.L. 115-97), (ii) “closing agreement” as described in Section 7121 of the Code (or any corresponding or similar provision of state, local or foreign income Tax Law) executed on or prior to the Closing Date, (iii) prepaid or deposit

(b) As of the date hereof, except for such regulatory services provided by the Seller Licensed Subsidiary and assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Buyer in Section 6.3(c), the Governmental Permits represent the material licenses, franchises, permits, privileges, immunities, approvals or other authorizations from a Governmental Body necessary to conduct of the Business immediately following the Closing on substantially the same basis as currently conducted.

(c) Since January 1, 2016, the Companies have complied in all material respects with the terms and conditions of the Governmental Permits, except as would not reasonably be expected to be, individually or in the aggregate, material to the Business. (d) As of the date hereof, neither Parent, Buyer nor any of their respective Affiliates is subject to any Governmental Orders (or has violated any Law in such a manner) that would reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

Section 6.4. Financing. As of the date of this Agreement, Parent has, and as of the Closing Date, Buyer will have, sufficient funds available for it to pay the Purchase Price on the terms contemplated hereby and to pay related fees and expenses. Without limitation of the foregoing, Parent has furnished to Seller complete and accurate fully executed copies of a debt commitment letter (as may be amended, modified, supplemented, replaced or extended in accordance with this Agreement, the "Commitment Letter"), dated as of the date hereof, among the banks party thereto and Parent, pursuant to which such banks have committed to provide or cause to be provided debt financing to Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (such debt financing, the "Financing"). The aggregate proceeds to be disbursed pursuant to the agreements contemplated by the Commitment Letter, together with cash on hand of Parent that is not subject to any restrictions and is able to be used to pay the Purchase Price, is sufficient to allow Buyer to (a) consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, including payment of the Purchase Price and (b) satisfy in cash all other obligations of Buyer required to be satisfied at the Closing. As of the date hereof, the Commitment Letter (together with the fee letters (copies of which have been provided to Seller, redacted with respect to any fees, flex amounts and other information customarily redacted provided that no provisions that, or would reasonably be expected to, adversely affect the availability of or impose additional conditions on, the availability of the Financing have been redacted)) constitute all of the agreements entered into by Parent and/or its Affiliates with respect to the Financing and the Commitment Letter. The Commitment Letter is not subject to any contingency or condition of any kind whatsoever, including any subsequent approval process, related to the funding of the full amount of the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter other than as set forth in the executed Commitment Letter. As of the date hereof, the Commitment Letter is in full force and effect, constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of Parent and, to the Knowledge of Buyer, the other parties thereto, and have not been modified or amended in any respect, and the respective commitments contained in the Commitment Letter have not been withdrawn or rescinded. No event has occurred which, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would constitute a default or breach on the part of Parent under any term, or a failure of any condition, of the Commitment Letter or otherwise result in any portion of the Financing contemplated thereby being unavailable on the date on which the Closing should occur pursuant to Section 4.1. Neither Parent nor any of its Affiliates is in breach of the Commitment Letter, nor are any of the other parties thereto in breach of the Commitment Letter. As of the date hereof, Parent has no reasonable reason to believe that,

(1) Parent and, to the Knowledge of the Buyer, each other party to the Commitment Letter shall be unable to satisfy on a timely basis any of the conditions that are required to be satisfied by it or such other party as a condition to the obligations under the Commitment Letter prior to the expiration thereof and (2) any portion of the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter shall not be made available to Buyer at the Closing. As of the date hereof, Parent has paid in full any and all commitment fees and/or other fees required to be paid on or prior to the date hereof under the terms of the Commitment Letter and shall pay all other commitment fees and/or other fees required to be paid under the terms of the Commitment Letter upon the Closing.

Section 6.5. Solvency. Immediately after giving effect to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby:

(a) the fair saleable value (determined on a going concern basis) of the assets of Buyer and its Subsidiaries (on a consolidated basis) shall be greater than the total amount of their liabilities;

(b) Buyer and its Subsidiaries (on a consolidated basis) shall be able to pay their respective debts and obligations in the ordinary course of business as they become due; and

(c) Buyer and its Subsidiaries (on a consolidated basis) shall have adequate capital to carry on their respective businesses and all businesses in which they are about to engage.

Section 6.6. Investment Intent. Buyer is acquiring the Shares as an investment for its own account and not with a view to the distribution thereof. Buyer shall not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or hypothecate any of the Shares in the absence of registration under, or pursuant to an applicable exemption from, federal and applicable state securities laws.

Section 6.7. No Brokers. Neither Parent, Buyer nor any Person acting on their behalf has become obligated to pay any fee or commission to any broker, finder or intermediary for or on account of the Contemplated Transactions that may be the responsibility or obligation, in whole or in part, of Seller or any of its Affiliates.

Section 6.8. Investigation. Each of Parent and Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it (a) has made its own inquiry and investigation into, and, based thereon, has formed an independent judgment concerning, the Companies, the Shares, the Business and the Contemplated Transactions, and any other rights or obligations to be transferred, directly or indirectly, pursuant to this Agreement and the Buyer Ancillary Agreements and (b) has been furnished with, or given access to, certain projections, forecasts, estimates, appraisals, statements, data or information about Seller, the Companies, the Shares, the Business and any other rights or obligations to be transferred, directly or indirectly, pursuant to this Agreement and the Buyer Ancillary Agreements, as it has requested. Each of Parent and Buyer further acknowledges and agrees that (i) the only representations and warranties made by Seller are the representations and warranties expressly set forth in Article V (as modified by the Schedules), (ii) except as to those matters expressly covered by the representations and warranties set forth in Article V (as modified by the Schedules), Seller is selling the Shares (and the Business and the Companies represented thereby) on an “as is, where is” basis, and Seller disclaims all other representations and warranties, whether express or implied, (iii) neither Parent nor Buyer has relied upon any other express or implied representations, warranties or other projections, forecasts, estimates, appraisals, statements, data or information made, communicated or furnished by or on behalf of Seller or any of its Affiliates, representatives or any other Person, including through any investment banker, or management presentations, data rooms (electronic or otherwise) or other due diligence information, and (iv) any claims Parent or Buyer may have for breach of any representation or warranty shall be based solely on the representations and warranties of Seller expressly set forth in Article V (as modified by the Schedules).

Section 6.9. No other Representations or Warranties. Except for the representations and warranties contained in this Article VI (as modified by the Schedules) and in the Buyer Ancillary Agreements, none of Buyer, Parent or any of their respective Affiliates, representatives or any other Person makes or shall be deemed to make any other express or implied representation or warranty with respect to Parent, Buyer, any Contemplated Transaction, any other rights or obligations to be transferred pursuant to this Agreement or any Seller Ancillary Agreement, or any other matter, and Parent and Buyer each hereby disclaim any other express or implied representations or warranties, whether made by Parent, Buyer or any other Person.

ARTICLE VII ACTION PRIOR TO THE CLOSING DATE

The respective parties hereto covenant and agree to take the following actions between the date hereof and the Closing Date:

Section 7.1. Access to Information. Prior to the Closing, Seller shall afford to the officers, employees and authorized representatives of Buyer and Parent (including independent public accountants and attorneys) reasonable access during normal business hours, upon reasonable advance notice, to the offices, properties, employees and business and financial records (including computer files, retrieval programs and similar documentation) of the Business to the extent Buyer or Parent shall reasonably deem necessary and shall furnish to Buyer and Parent or their respective authorized representatives such additional information concerning the Business as shall be reasonably requested; provided, however, that Seller shall not be required to violate any Requirement of Law, Court Order or obligation of confidentiality to which Seller, any of its Affiliates or the Companies is subject or to waive any privilege which any of them may possess in discharging their obligations pursuant to this Section 7.1; provided, further, that Seller, its Affiliates and the Companies shall not be required to furnish or otherwise make available to Buyer (i) competitively sensitive information relating to areas of the Company's business in which Buyer or its Affiliates directly or indirectly compete against the Business or (ii) Tax Returns or other Tax records or information relating to any Consolidated Tax Group; and provided, further, Buyer shall not, without the prior written consent of Seller, contact or communicate with any vendor, customer, employee, independent contractor or other business partner of the Companies with respect to or in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. Buyer agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that such investigation shall be conducted in a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the operations of the Companies or Seller and Buyer shall not undertake any invasive or intrusive environmental testing without Seller's prior consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations of Seller pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall be subject to the right of Seller to determine, in its discretion, the appropriate timing of the disclosure of information it deems proprietary commercial information or privileged information. The parties shall act at all times in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 7.2. Notifications. From the date hereof to the Closing Date, each of Buyer and Seller shall promptly notify the other of any action, suit or proceeding of which they are aware that shall be instituted or threatened against such party to restrain, prohibit or otherwise challenge the legality of any Contemplated Transaction. Prior to Closing, each party hereto shall promptly notify the other of any lawsuit, claim, proceeding or investigation that may be threatened, brought, asserted or commenced against the Companies, Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, that would have been listed in Schedule 5.12 or Schedule 6.3, as the case may be, if such lawsuit, claim, proceeding or investigation had arisen prior to the date hereof. If a party fails to notify the other party under this Section 7.2, a failure to comply with this Section 7.2 shall not cause the failure of any condition set forth in Article IX or X to be satisfied unless the underlying change, event or development would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Article IX or X to be satisfied.

Section 7.3. Consents of Third Parties; Governmental Approvals; Shared Contracts.

(a) Prior to the Closing, Seller and Buyer shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to secure, as promptly as practicable, the consent, approval or waiver required to be obtained from any party to any Transferred Contract or other Business Agreement to consummate the Contemplated Transactions; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 7.3, such action shall not include any requirement of Seller or Buyer or any of their respective Affiliates (including the Companies) to expend money (other than customary legal advisor costs), commence or participate in any Proceeding or offer or grant any accommodation or concession (financial or otherwise) to any third party.

(b) Prior to the Closing, Buyer shall act diligently and reasonably, and Seller, upon the request of Buyer, shall act diligently and reasonably in cooperating with Buyer, in attempting to secure any consents and approvals of any Governmental Body required to be obtained by Buyer in order to permit the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

(c) Parent, Buyer and Seller shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates to) file not more than ten business days after the date hereof with the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the "DOJ") the notifications and other information required to be filed under the HSR Act. Each of Parent, Buyer and Seller agrees to file (and to cause its Affiliates to file) any additional information requested by such Governmental Bodies under the HSR Act or any other competition Laws as promptly as practicable after receipt of such request. Each of Parent and Buyer, on the one hand, and Seller, on the other hand, shall furnish to the other party such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other party may request in connection with its preparation of any filing or submission that is necessary under the HSR Act or other competition Law, as the case may be. Each of Seller, on the one hand, and Parent and Buyer, on the other hand, shall use reasonable best efforts to comply promptly with any inquiries or requests for additional information from the FTC and the DOJ. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement (including the following sentence), prior to Closing, each of the parties agrees to (and to cause its Affiliates to) use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other party in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable, consistent with this Section 7.3, to consummate, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Contemplated Transactions. In addition, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, each of Parent and Buyer agrees to (and to cause its Affiliates to) use reasonable best efforts to take any and all actions necessary to obtain all consents and approvals of any antitrust Governmental Bodies, including but not limited to: (i) causing the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and obtaining all other necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents and approvals from all Governmental Bodies and making all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Bodies) and taking all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Body, (ii) defending any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement, any of the Ancillary Agreements or any of the Contemplated Transactions, including opposing any motion or action for a temporary, preliminary or permanent injunction against the Contemplated Transactions and seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered into by any court or other Governmental Body vacated or reversed, and (iii) promptly taking all steps and making all undertakings to secure antitrust clearance; provided, however, that the foregoing covenants do not require Parent or Buyer to propose, negotiate, offer to commit to enter into or effect, by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, sell, offer to sell or otherwise dispose of, properties of Parent, Buyer, their respective Affiliates and/or the Companies or hold separate such properties pending such sale or other disposition. Prior to Closing, each of the parties agrees to (and to cause its Affiliates to) keep the other party informed in all material respects and on a reasonably timely basis of any material communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, any Governmental Body and of any material communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party relating to the Contemplated Transactions, in each case regarding any of the Contemplated Transactions. Subject to applicable Law relating to the exchange of information, prior to Closing, each of the parties shall permit the other party to review in advance any material communication delivered to, and to the extent practicable consult with the other party in advance of any substantive meeting or discussion with, any Governmental Body relating to the Contemplated Transactions or in connection with any proceeding by a private party, and give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and discussions (to the extent practicable and permitted by such Governmental Body or private party). No party to this Agreement shall consent to any voluntary delay of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby at the behest of any Governmental Body without the consent of the other party to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the forgoing, the parties shall mutually agree to the strategy, manner and process relating to seeking the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, including, if applicable, to pull and refile thereunder or to extend the period for any action.

(d) Buyer acknowledges that certain consents (including consents contingent on the fulfillment of certain conditions), approvals, waivers, agreement, or actions of, or (with or without lapse of time) notice to, third parties relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be required under instruments, contracts, commitments, agreements or arrangements (the “Applicable Consents”), which Applicable Consents may have not been obtained or are themselves subject to conditions not fulfilled as of the Closing. Other than (if applicable) with respect to claims for indemnification under Section 12.2(a)(i) in respect of a breach of the representations and warranties in Section 5.3(b)(i)(A)(2) or Section 5.20(a)(ii), Seller shall not have any liability whatsoever to Buyer arising out of or relating to the failure to obtain any Applicable Consents except to use efforts as herein provided. Subject to Section 7.3(i), if an Applicable Consent is not obtained in respect of a Seller Licensed Subsidiary Contract prior to the expiration of the applicable term of the Transition Services Agreement, such Contract shall nevertheless be assigned to one of the Companies in accordance with this Agreement and the Transition Services Agreement, and the Companies and Buyer shall be responsible for all liabilities and obligations relating to or arising out of such Seller Licensed Subsidiary Contract (including any breaches thereof) and shall indemnify Seller and its Subsidiaries from any losses relating thereto.

(e) The parties acknowledge that the Seller Licensed Subsidiary and/or the Companies are parties to certain Seller Licensed Subsidiary Contracts. Prior to Closing, the Parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to with respect to the Seller Licensed Subsidiary Contracts set forth on applicable subsections of Schedule 7.3(e)(i), (1) obtain the consent of such Biller to remove the Seller Licensed Subsidiary as a party to such Contract, (2) assign the rights and obligations of the Seller Licensed Subsidiary under such Contract effective as of the Closing to the Buyer Licensed Subsidiary and obtain the consent of such Biller to such assignment, or (3) assign the rights and obligations of the Seller Licensed Subsidiary under such Contract in respect of retail money transfer services to the Buyer Licensed Subsidiary effective as of the Closing and obtain the agreement of the applicable Biller that is the counterparty to such Contract to enter into a new contract effective as of the Closing Date pursuant to which the Seller Licensed Subsidiary will receive substantially the same goods and services provided by such Contract to the Seller Licensed Subsidiary prior to the Closing in respect of the walk-in services contemplated thereby and to remove such walk-in services from such Seller Licensed Subsidiary Contract.

(f) The parties acknowledge that the Companies are parties to certain Biller Contracts (other than the Contracts set forth on Schedule 7.3(e)) pursuant to which (A) the Companies provide services in respect of the Business and (B) Seller and its Affiliates (excluding the Companies), provide services relating to the businesses of Seller other than the Business (the "Joint Service Contracts"). Prior to the Closing, the parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain the agreement of the Biller that is the counterparty to each Joint Service Contract to enter into (1) a new replacement contract effective as of the Closing Date or as soon thereafter as practicable pursuant to which the Companies will provide the services to such Biller that the Companies provided under the applicable Joint Service Contract and (2) a new replacement contract effective as of the Closing Date pursuant to which Seller or its applicable Subsidiary will provide the services to such Biller that Seller or its applicable Subsidiary (other than the Companies) provided to such Biller under the Joint Service Contract.

(g) The parties acknowledge that the Companies are parties to certain Contracts that relate to the operations or conduct of the business of Seller and its Affiliates (excluding the Companies) and the Business, but will remain with Seller or its Affiliates (excluding the Companies) after the Closing. In the case of those contracts set forth on Schedule 7.3(e)(ii) (the "Shared Contracts"), prior to Closing, the parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to (A) obtain the agreement of the third party that is the counterparty to each Shared Contract to enter into a new contract effective as of the Closing Date pursuant to which the Companies will receive substantially the same goods and services provided by the Shared Contract to the Companies, or Seller or its Subsidiaries in respect of the Business, prior to the Closing (each, a “Replacement Shared Contract”) and, where applicable, to cause the applicable counterparty to release the Seller and its applicable Affiliates (excluding, prior to Closing, the Companies) from any applicable minimum quantity or other commitments to the extent such commitments become the obligation of the Companies under the Replacement Shared Contract and (B) to the extent either of the Companies is a party to a Shared Contract, cause the applicable counterparty to release the applicable Company from obligations arising after the Closing Date under the Shared Contract effective as of the Closing Date.

(h) If one or more Replacement Shared Contracts are not entered into prior to or on the Closing Date, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, during the remaining term of the applicable Shared Contract, the parties shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to allow the Companies to the extent permitted by applicable Requirements of Law to receive substantially the same goods and services of the subject matter of the Shared Contract received prior to the Closing and the economic and other burdens of such Shared Contract; provided, however, that the Buyer shall reimburse the Seller for any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with any such arrangement and, subject to the requirements of the Transition Services Agreement, the Seller shall have no obligation to engage in the Business following the Closing. Nothing in Section 7.3(e), 7.3(f), 7.3(g) or 7.3(h) shall require Seller or any of its Affiliates (including the Companies) to expend money (other than customary legal advisor costs), commence or participate in any litigation or offer or grant any accommodation or concession (financial or otherwise) to any third party.

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, none of the transactions contemplated by Section 7.3(e) shall occur until the applicable Biller is an Eligible Biller. In the event that any Biller does not become an Eligible Biller prior to the expiration of the applicable service under the Transition Services Agreement, Seller and its Affiliates shall be permitted to terminate such Biller Contract and the obligations of Seller and its Affiliates in respect of such Biller Contract in this Section 7.3 shall terminate. Buyer will be responsible for any liability to a Biller arising from a claim that such termination was a breach of the Biller Contract.

(j) Seller and the Buyer will each designate a qualified employee to serve as its principal representative to coordinate and facilitate the transactions contemplated by Section 7.3(e), 7.3(f), 7.3(g) and 7.3(h). Such employees designated will be granted sufficient authority to resolve on behalf of Seller and the Buyer all questions and problems arising with respect to the transactions contemplated by Section 7.3(e), 7.3(f), 7.3(g) and 7.3(h). From the date hereof until further written notice to the other party, unless changed by the relevant Party by notice given in accordance with this Agreement the representative of Seller shall be John Jones, and the representative of the Buyer shall be Rob Osborne. Such representatives shall discuss any issues regarding the transactions contemplated by Section 7.3(e), 7.3(f), 7.3(g) and 7.3(h) at least twice per week during the first four weeks following the date hereof and weekly thereafter. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, all communications relating to this Agreement will be made in accordance with Section 13.3. In the event that such representatives are not able to resolve any issues or disputes that may arise in connection with the transactions contemplated by Section 7.3(e), 7.3(f), 7.3(g) and 7.3(h), the applicable issues shall be escalated to Sanjay Gupta, on behalf of Buyer, and Caleb Kim, on behalf of Seller, or other senior management team members mutually agreed by the parties, who shall cooperate in good faith to resolve any such issues or disputes.

(k) From the date of this Agreement to the Closing Date, none of Seller, Buyer, nor any of their respective Affiliates, will enter into any agreement or effect a transaction that would reasonably be expected to delay obtaining any antitrust approvals with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(l) Subject to the services to be provided by Seller and its Affiliates pursuant to the Transition Services Agreement, Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, and cause its Affiliates to take, any and all actions necessary to ensure that from and after Closing Buyer and its Affiliates have any and all money transfer licenses and similar permits necessary to operate the Business from and after Closing.

(m) Seller and Buyer will cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to convert each Biller of the Business to NextGen Platform as promptly as reasonably practical; provided, however, that (i) this Section 7.3(m) shall not require Seller or its Subsidiaries to expend any funds or make any concessions other than those customarily made by Seller or its Subsidiaries in connection with the NextGen Platform migration and (ii) the obligations in this Section 7.3(m) shall terminate as of the Closing.

(n) Nothing in Section 7.3(a) or Section 7.3(d) through 7.3(h) shall include any requirement of Seller or Buyer or any of their respective Affiliates (including the Companies) to expend money (other than customary legal advisor costs), commence or participate in any Proceeding or offer or grant any concession (financial or otherwise) to any third party.

(o) The parties acknowledge and agree that Buyer's obligation to obtain the Financing is governed by Sections 7.6 and 7.7 and not this Section 7.3.

Section 7.4. Operations Prior to the Closing Date.

(a) Prior to the Closing, except as set forth on Schedule 7.4, requested by any Governmental Body, required or expressly permitted by this Agreement or Law, or with the express written approval of Buyer (which Buyer agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Seller shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Companies to operate and carry on the Business in all material respect in the ordinary course and substantially as operated immediately prior to the date of this Agreement and to use their commercially reasonable efforts to preserve the goodwill of the suppliers, contractors, licensors, employees, customers, distributors and others having business relations with the Companies.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 7.4(a), except as set forth on Schedule 7.4(b), requested by any Governmental Body, required by any Law, required or expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the express written approval of Buyer (which Buyer agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed with respect to the matters in clauses (ii), (iv), (xiv), (xiv) and (xvii) below and, to the extent related thereto, (xviii)), prior to the Closing, Seller shall not permit either of the Companies to:

(vi) make a material change in practices and procedures with respect to collection of accounts receivable, prepayment of expenses or payment of trade accounts payable;

(vii) settle any material Proceeding, except to the extent such settlement does not obligate the Companies to (A) pay money following the Closing or (B) take or refrain from taking any action following the Closing that would reasonably be expected to harm the Business;

(viii) make or change any Tax election, change any Tax accounting period, change any Tax method of accounting, file any amended Tax Return, settle or otherwise compromise and proposed assessment of Taxes, or forego any right to a refund of Taxes, in each case if such action would materially adversely affect the Liability of the Buyer, any Company or their respective Affiliates for Taxes for any taxable period (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date;

(ix) make any change in the charter or bylaws or comparable organization document of either of the Companies;

(x) authorize for issuance, issue, deliver, sell, transfer or grant to any Person (other than to Seller) (A) any equity or similar interests of either of the Companies, (B) any debt equity or other voting securities of either of the Companies, or (C) any securities convertible into or exchangeable for, or any options, warrants or rights to acquire, any equity or similar interests, voting securities or convertible or exchangeable securities of either of the Companies;

(xiv) (A) enter into any Shared Vendor Contract, or (B) enter into, terminate, cancel or modify in any material respect any Business Agreement (or any Contract that would be a Business Agreement if in effect as of the date of this Agreement), in each case other than extensions to renew the Business Agreement in the ordinary course of business on terms that are not materially inconsistent with the practice of the Business in 2018 in respect of extensions and renewals; provided, however, that with respect to Business Agreements described in Section 5.13(b), 5.13(c) or 5.13(k) (or Contracts that would have been Business Agreements under such Sections if in effect as of the date hereof), the Companies shall be permitted to enter into modify such Contracts in the ordinary course of business (even if such Business Agreements or Contracts also constitute or would constitute Business Agreements under other provisions of Section 5.13);

(xv) implement any material change with respect to any business line of the Business, which such change is materially inconsistent with the business plans Seller has provided in writing to Buyer with respect to the Business on or prior to the date hereof;

(xvi) enter into any Contract with Seller or its Affiliates (other than the Companies) that would survive the Closing or enter into any Biller Contract that requires a third-party consent or approval to effect the Closing without breach of such Biller Contract;

(xvii) incur any Indebtedness that will not constitute Indebtedness that will be repaid at Closing; or (xviii) agree to enter into any of the transactions set forth in the foregoing clauses.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Seller shall be entitled to transfer any Cash of the Companies to Seller, via dividend or otherwise, at any time and from time to time prior to midnight on the day immediately preceding Closing; provided, however, from midnight on the Closing Date through the Closing, Seller shall not use or transfer any Cash of the Companies or assets included in Closing Date Working Capital, to the extent such assets are sold, liquidated, disposed of or otherwise used to (i) make payment in respect of or discharge any Indebtedness or Transaction Expenses or (ii) pay any dividends, make any distribution or make any other payment to or for the benefit of the Seller or any Affiliate of the Seller (other than the Companies).

Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer such attestation upon receipt.

(b) Other than as described on Schedule 7.5(b), or otherwise contemplated by the Transition Services Agreement, Seller shall cause all rights and obligations of Seller and its Affiliates (other than the Companies), on the one hand, and of the Companies, on the other hand, under agreements (other than the Buyer Ancillary Agreements and the Seller Ancillary Agreements) (together, the “Intercompany Agreements”) between Seller and its Affiliates (other than the Companies), on the one hand, and the Companies, on the other hand, to terminate or otherwise be released, including by way of assignment of rights and obligations of the Companies to Seller or one of its Affiliates, as of the Closing without creating any Liabilities of either Company. Following the Closing, neither Seller and its Affiliates (other than the Companies), on the one hand, nor the Companies, on the other hand, shall have any Liability to the other with respect to such terminated Intercompany Agreements.

Section 7.6. Efforts to Obtain Funding.

(a) Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain the Financing as promptly as practical and, in any event, not later than the date the Closing is required to be effected in accordance with Section 4.1, on the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Commitment Letter (including the “flex” provisions of the related fee letter), including using its reasonable best efforts to: (i) maintain in effect the Commitment Letter and negotiate in good faith and enter into as promptly as practicable definitive agreements (the “Definitive Financing Agreements”) with respect to the Financing (on the terms and subject to the conditions reflected in the Commitment Letter (including the “flex” provisions of the related fee letter), provided that such terms do not contain any conditions to funding that are not set forth in the Commitment Letter and otherwise would not reasonably be expected to prevent, impair or delay the Closing); (ii) comply on a timely basis with all covenants, and satisfy on a timely basis all conditions, required to be complied with or satisfied by Parent in the Commitment Letter (including the “flex” provisions of the related fee letter) and in such Definitive Financing Agreements; (iii) cause the Financing to be consummated at such time or from time to time as is necessary for Parent to satisfy its obligations under this Agreement; (iv) pay in a timely manner any and all commitment or other fees that become payable by Buyer or Parent under the Commitment Letter on or following the date hereof; and (v) enforce its rights under the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements, as applicable. Parent shall not, without the prior written consent of Seller, amend, replace, supplement or otherwise modify the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements, as applicable, in any manner (including by way of a side letter or other binding agreement, arrangement or understanding) in a way that would (A) add new, or expand any existing, conditions to the consummation of all or a portion of the Financing, (B) reduce the amount of the Financing, (C) adversely affect the ability of Parent or Buyer to enforce its rights against other parties to the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements, or (D) reasonably be expected to prevent, impede or materially delay the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions or otherwise adversely affect the ability or likelihood of Buyer to timely consummate the Contemplated Transactions or make the satisfaction of the conditions to obtaining the Financing less likely to occur. Parent shall not release or consent to the termination of the obligations of any of the parties under the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements.

(b) In the event any portion of the Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Commitment Letter (including the “flex” provisions of the related fee letter) for any reason or the Commitment Letter shall be terminated or modified in a manner adverse to Seller for any reason, Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain, as promptly as practicable, and in any event no later than three business days prior to the date the Closing is required to occur pursuant to Section 4.1, from the same or alternative financing sources, alternative financing on terms not less favorable (including, for the avoidance of doubt, (1) all conditions precedent and contingencies to funding of such financing being in the aggregate, in respect of certainty of funding, equivalent to (or more favorable to Parent than) the conditions precedent and contingencies set forth in the Commitment Letter (prior to such Alternative Financing) and (2) such substitution not (x) delaying or preventing the Closing, (y) adversely impacting the likelihood of the funding of the Financing or (z) adversely impacting the ability of Parent or Buyer to enforce its rights against the other parties to the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements or the ability of Parent or Buyer to timely consummate the transactions contemplated hereby) to Parent than the terms of the Financing in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) an amount sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (after taking into consideration the funds otherwise available to Parent), and (ii) the amount of financing that was contemplated by the Commitment Letter on the date hereof. In the event any alternative or substitute financing is obtained by Parent in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.6(b) (the “Alternative Financing”), references herein to the Financing (including, for avoidance of doubt, the references in this Section 7.6, but excluding references in Section 6.4) shall be deemed to refer to the Alternative Financing, and if a new financing commitment letter is entered into in connection with such Alternative Financing, references herein to the Commitment Letter (including, for avoidance of doubt, the references in this Section 7.6, but excluding the references in Section 6.4) shall be deemed to refer to the new financing commitment letter entered into in connection with the Alternative Financing and any references to the fee letters shall refer to the new fee letters entered into in connection with the Alternative Financing.

(c) Parent and Buyer each acknowledges and agrees that obtaining the Financing is not a condition to its obligations to consummate the Contemplated Transactions.

(d) Buyer shall promptly (i) reimburse Seller for all documented reasonable third-party out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' and accountants fees') incurred by Seller or any of its Affiliates in connection with their cooperation with Buyer in its efforts to obtain the Financing and (ii) indemnify and hold harmless the Companies and their Affiliates for and against any and all Losses suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with the arrangement of the Financing or any information used in connection therewith (other than information provided by the Seller or any of its Affiliates) and all actions taken by the Companies or their respective Affiliates pursuant to this Section 7.6.

(e) Prior to the Closing, Seller shall cause the Companies to use their reasonable best efforts to, at Parent's and Buyer's sole expense, provide all customary cooperation reasonably requested by Parent in connection with Parent arranging the Financing, including, if requested by Parent, using reasonable best efforts to (i) assist with the preparation of customary offering and syndication documents and materials, including lender and investor presentations, rating agency materials and presentations, and similar documents and materials, in connection with the Financing, (ii) have the Companies designate a member of senior management of the Companies to participate in a reasonable number of presentations, road shows, due diligence sessions, drafting sessions and sessions with ratings agencies in connection with the Financing, including direct contact between such senior management of the Companies and the Financing Sources and potential lenders in the Financing, (iii) assist Parent in obtaining any corporate credit and family ratings from any ratings agencies contemplated by the Commitment Letters, (iv) assist in the preparation of definitive financing documents, including guarantee documents and other certificates and documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent, (v) obtain from the Companies' existing lenders such consents, approvals, authorizations and instruments which may be reasonably requested by Parent in connection with the Financing, if applicable and taking corporate actions reasonably requested by Parent to permit the consummation of the Financing provided that they are contingent on the completion of the Financing, (vi) obtain from the Companies' existing banking lenders customary payoff letters, lien releases, instruments of termination or discharge, if applicable, (vii) provide assistance with respect to the review and grant of any security interests in and/or pledging of collateral for and providing of guarantees supporting the Financing and obtaining any consents associated therewith, (viii) provide Parent with any financial statements of the Companies required to be provided pursuant to this Agreement, and (ix) provide, no later than four business days prior to Closing, all documentation and other information as has been reasonably requested in writing at least 10 business days prior to Closing by the Financing Sources that they reasonable determine is required by bank regulatory authorities under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including without limitation the PATRIOT Act.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) nothing herein shall require such cooperation to the extent it would unreasonably interfere in any material respect with the business or operations of either of the Companies or their Affiliates or require either of the Companies or their Affiliates to agree to pay any fees, reimburse any expenses, incur any Liability, in each case, that is not indemnified by or subject to reimbursement by the Parent or Buyer, or give any indemnities (other than with respect to customary “representation and authorization letters” in connection with the Offering Documents); (ii) the Companies shall not be required to enter into (or approve) any definitive agreement related to any proposed Financing, (iii) the Companies and their Affiliates shall not be required to take any action that would require any director, officer or employee of any Company or any of their Affiliates to execute, or be required to enter into, or adopt any resolutions approving, any document, agreement, certificate or instrument (provided, that the Companies shall cooperate with the Buyer to appoint Buyer’s designees to the respective boards of directors (or equivalent bodies) of the Companies as of Closing for purposes of approving resolutions, the effectiveness of which is to be conditioned upon the Closing, related to the Financing), (iv) nothing herein shall require either of the Companies or their Affiliates to cause the delivery of legal opinions, reliance letters or certificates; and (v) neither Company or any of their Affiliates shall be required to take any action that conflicts with or violates their respective organizational documents, any applicable Law or Business Agreement or provide in connection with the Financing any information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted under Law or is legally privileged. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the condition set forth in Section 9.1(a), as it applies to the Seller’s obligations under this Section 7.6(f), shall be deemed satisfied unless the Financing has not been obtained primarily as a result of the Seller’s willful and material breach of its obligations under this Section 7.6(f) with respect to the Financing.

Section 7.7. Financing Status. Parent shall keep Seller reasonably informed to the extent requested in writing by Seller from time to time with respect to all material activity concerning the status of the Financing, and shall give Seller prompt notice of any event or change that Parent determines shall materially and adversely affect the ability of Parent timely to consummate the Financing. Without limiting the foregoing, Parent agrees to notify Seller as promptly as reasonably practicable, if at any time: (a) the Commitment Letter shall expire or be terminated for any reason, (b) any financing source that is a party to the Commitment Letter notifies Buyer in writing that such source no longer intends to provide financing to Buyer on the terms set forth in the Commitment Letter (including the “flex” provisions of the related fee letter), or (c) a material breach, default, dispute or disagreement occurs or is alleged under the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Financing Agreements. Buyer shall deliver to Seller copies of drafts of the Definitive Financing Agreements (and its comments thereon) promptly as reasonably practicable after receipt (or delivery) thereof and a copy of the Definitive Financing Agreements as promptly as reasonably practicable after the execution and delivery thereof.

Section 7.8. Audited Financial Statements. As promptly as practicable after the date hereof and in any event no later than (i) with respect to the financial statements other than fiscal year 2018, 60 days following the Closing and (ii) with respect to the financial statements for fiscal

As promptly as practicable and in any event no later than (i) with respect to the financial statements other than fiscal year 2018, 60 days following the Closing and (ii) with respect to the financial statements for fiscal year 2018, the Closing, Seller shall deliver to the Parent an executed consent of Seller's independent accounting firm, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Parent and suitable for filing by the Parent with the SEC, which consent shall authorize the Parent to file with the SEC the report referred to in this Section 7.8 and all other reports delivered by Seller hereunder.

(ii) ECG shall assume, without any consideration, all of the Assumed Liabilities.

(iii) Each of the Companies shall transfer to Seller, without any consideration in exchange therefor, all of the Seller Assets.

(iv) Seller shall assume (or cause one of its Subsidiaries to Assume), without any consideration in exchange therefor, all of the Seller Liabilities.

(b) To the extent any Contributed Assets are not transferred or assigned to ECG or Sprint prior to the Closing, the parties shall allow the Companies without any additional costs to the Companies, to the extent permitted by Law and to the extent reasonably within the contractual or other ability or control of the parties, to enjoy the economic and other benefits, and to have the economic and other burdens, of such Contributed Assets as if they had been transferred to ECG or Sprint prior to the Closing. To the extent any Seller Assets are not transferred or assigned to Seller or one of its Subsidiaries (other than the Companies) prior to the Closing, the parties shall allow Seller, to the extent permitted by Law and to the extent reasonably within the contractual or other ability or control of the parties, to enjoy the economic and other benefits, and to have the economic and other burdens, of such Seller Assets as if they had been transferred to Seller or one of its Subsidiaries (other than the Companies) prior to the Closing.

Section 7.10. Non-Assignable Assets.

(a) No Agreement to Transfer. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall not require and no Contract evidencing the Reorganization (a “Reorganization Agreement”) shall constitute an agreement to sell, contribute, dividend, assign, transfer, convey or deliver any (i) Contributed Asset that constitutes a Transferred Contract or a Transferred Permit and any claim or right or benefit arising thereunder or resulting therefrom if (A) an attempted sale, contribution, dividend, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery thereof (without the consent, approval or waiver of a Third Party), would violate, constitute a default under or breach of such Contributed Asset or would violate any applicable Law or (B) such Contract is with a Biller who is not an Eligible Biller (collectively, a “Business Non-Assignable Asset”) or (ii) asset, license, lease, permit or property that constitutes a Seller Asset that is to be transferred from a Company to an Affiliate of Seller as part of the Reorganization and any claim or right or benefit arising thereunder or resulting therefrom if an attempted sale, contribution, dividend, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery thereof (without the consent, approval or waiver of a Third Party) would violate, constitute a default under or breach of such license, lease, permit or property thereunder or would violate any applicable Law (collectively, a “Remainco Non-Assignable Asset” and, together with any Business Non-Assignable Asset, each a “Non-Assignable Asset”), in each case of clause (a)(i) or (a)(ii), without first obtaining all such necessary approvals, consents and waivers of such Third Parties or, if applicable, until such Biller is an Eligible Biller, and this Agreement and any applicable Reorganization Agreement shall not be deemed to constitute a sale, contribution, dividend, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery or attempted contribution, dividend, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery thereof and the applicable provisions of this Section 7.10 shall apply in regard to all such Non-Assignable Assets.

(b) Post-Closing Treatment of Certain Non-Assignable Assets and Liabilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any Reorganization Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and Contract, in the event that (i) any applicable approval, consent or waiver to the contribution, dividend, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery of any Non-Assignable Asset cannot be obtained prior to the Closing or (ii) in the case of any Biller Contracts, such Biller is not an Eligible Biller at the Closing, (A)(1) in the case of any Biller Contracts, (x) Seller and its Subsidiaries shall provide the services with respect thereto as expressly provided in Section 7.3 or the Transition Services Agreement for the time periods contemplated thereby and (y) the Companies and Buyer shall be responsible for all Liabilities with respect thereto that would be considered Assumed Liabilities if the Biller Contract had been assigned, including all liabilities arising under such Biller Contract after the Closing and (2) in the case of all other Business Non-Assignable Assets, the applicable Asset Transferor shall hold, or cause to be held, such Business Non-Assignable Asset, as of and from the Closing, in trust for the applicable Company (and Seller shall cause such applicable Asset Transferor to do so) and the covenants and Liabilities (except for any Excluded Liabilities) thereunder shall be performed by the applicable Company (and Buyer shall cause such applicable Company to do so) in the applicable Asset Transferor’s name and all benefits and Liabilities (except for Excluded Liabilities) existing thereunder shall be for the applicable Company (in each case solely to the extent they would otherwise be Contributed Assets and Assumed Liabilities and Seller shall cause the Asset Transferors to take, at Buyer's cost and expense (except to the extent Seller is liable therefor under this Agreement), such commercially reasonable actions in its name or otherwise as Buyer may reasonably request so as to provide the applicable Company with the benefits of the Business Non-Assignable Assets, to effect the collection of money or other consideration that becomes due and payable under the Business Non-Assignable Assets and to enforce for the benefit of the applicable Company and at the expense of such Company, any and all rights against a Third Party arising under such Business Non-Assignable Asset ("Third Party Rights"), and Seller shall cause the Asset Transferors to promptly pay, or cause to be paid, to such Company all money or other consideration received by the Asset Transferors in respect of all Business Non-Assignable Assets. In the case of a Remainco Non-Assignable Asset, unless otherwise determined by Seller, to the extent permitted by applicable Law or Contract, Buyer shall cause the applicable Company to hold, or cause to be held, such Remainco Non-Assignable Asset, as of and from the Closing, in trust for Seller or its applicable Affiliate and the covenants and Liabilities (except for any Assumed Liabilities) thereunder shall be performed by Seller or its applicable Affiliate (and Seller shall, and shall cause such applicable Affiliate to, do so) in the applicable Company's name and all benefits and Liabilities (except for any Assumed Liabilities) existing thereunder shall be for Seller or its applicable Affiliate (in each case solely to the extent they would otherwise be Excluded Assets or Excluded Liabilities). Following the Closing, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and Contract, Buyer shall cause the applicable Company to take, at Seller's cost and expense (except to the extent Buyer is liable therefor under this Agreement), such commercially reasonable actions in its name or otherwise as Seller may reasonably request so as to provide Seller or its applicable Affiliate with the benefits of the Remainco Non-Assignable Assets, to effect the collection of money or other consideration that becomes due and payable under the Remainco Non-Assignable Assets and to enforce for the benefit of Seller or its applicable Affiliate and at the expense of Seller, any and all rights against a Third Party arising under such Remainco Non-Assignable Asset, and Buyer shall cause the Companies to promptly pay, or cause to be paid, to Seller or such of its Affiliates all money or other consideration received by the Company in respect of all Remainco Non-Assignable Assets, net of any Tax incurred in connection with the receipt of such money (or other consideration) or required to be withheld on payment.

(c) Post-Closing Efforts to Obtain Consents to Assign. Following the Closing, (i) Seller shall, and shall cause the Asset Transferors to, use reasonable best efforts to, with Buyer's participation and assistance, obtain the necessary approvals, consents and waivers to effect the sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery of any Business Non-Assignable Asset to the applicable Company (provided, that neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates shall be required to compensate any Third Party (other than any such compensation agreed to be reimbursed by the Buyer), commence or participate in any litigation or offer or grant any concession (financial or otherwise) to any Third Party to obtain any such consent, approval or waiver) and (ii) Buyer shall, and shall cause the applicable Company to, use reasonable best efforts to, with Seller's participation and assistance, obtain the necessary approvals, consents and waivers to effect the sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery of any Non-Assignable Asset with respect to a Remainco Non-Assignable Asset to Seller or the applicable Affiliate of Seller (provided, that neither Buyer nor any Buyer Affiliate shall be required to compensate any Third Party (other than any such compensation agreed to be reimbursed by Seller), commence or participate in any litigation, or offer or grant any concession (financial or otherwise) to any Third Party to obtain any such consent, approval or waiver). If and when such necessary approvals, consents and waivers are obtained after the Closing to effect the sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery of any Contributed Asset or Remainco Non-Assignable Asset that had constituted a Non-Assignable Asset, such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery shall be effected reasonably promptly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and/or the Reorganization, for no additional consideration, after which, such Contributed Asset or Remainco Non-Assignable Asset shall no longer be subject to this Section 7.10 as a Non-Assignable Asset.

Section 7.11. Wrong Pockets.

(a) During the 12-month period following the Closing Date, if Buyer, Parent or Seller discover that any:

(i) Seller Asset, Excluded Asset or settlement funds of Seller or its Affiliates (other than those held by the Seller Licensed Subsidiary reflected in dedicated accounts which have been established in respect of the Business), were directly or indirectly transferred to Buyer (or held by the Companies) at Closing (each, a "Held Asset"), Buyer shall, and shall cause its Buyer Affiliates to, use reasonable best efforts to (A) promptly assign and transfer all right, title and interest in such Held Asset to Seller or its designated assignee and (B) pending such transfer, (x) hold in trust such Held Asset and provide to Seller or its designated assignee all of the benefits associated with the ownership of the Held Asset and (y) cause such Held Asset to be used or retained as may be reasonably instructed by Seller;

(ii) any Contributed Asset or settlement funds of the (A) Seller Licensed Subsidiary reflected in dedicated accounts which have been established in respect of the Business or (B) the Companies were not transferred to Buyer at Closing (each of (A) and (B), an "Omitted Asset"), Seller shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to use reasonable best efforts to (1) promptly assign and transfer all right, title and interest in such Omitted Asset to Buyer or its designated assignee, and (2) pending such transfer, (x) hold in trust such Omitted Asset and provide to Buyer or its designated assignee all of the benefits associated with the ownership of the Omitted Asset, and (y) cause such Omitted Asset to be used or retained as may be reasonably instructed by Buyer.

(b) Buyer or Seller, as applicable, shall (and shall cause their Affiliates, as applicable, to) use reasonable best efforts to, in addition to the other actions set forth in Section 7.11(a)(i) and Section 7.11(a)(ii), promptly upon the request of the other party, (A) obtain all consents from Persons necessary or appropriate for the purposes of transferring, assigning and conveying such Held Asset or Omitted Asset (or part thereof), as applicable, or the relevant interests in them to the other party and (B) complete all such further acts or things as the other party may reasonably direct in order to transfer, assign and convey such Held Asset or Omitted Asset (or parts thereof), as applicable, or the relevant interests in them to the other party; provided, that the transferring party and its Affiliates shall not be required to incur any out-of-pocket expense pursuant to this clause (b) which is not agreed to be paid or reimbursed by the transferring party or its Affiliates.

Section 7.12. R&W Policy. Without the prior written consent of the Seller, neither Parent nor Buyer shall amend, waive or otherwise modify any provision in the Representation and Warranty Policy attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "R&W Policy") in any manner that would allow, except as set forth in such R&W Policy, the insurer thereunder or any other Person to subrogate or otherwise make or bring, or cause Parent, Buyer or any of their Affiliates to make or bring, any claim or Proceeding against Seller or any Affiliate thereof or any past, present or future director, manager, officer, employee or advisor of any of the foregoing based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement, or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement.

Section 7.13. Walletron.

(a) Seller hereby grants to Buyer an option (the "Walletron Option") to acquire Walletron, Inc. ("Walletron") at the Closing by virtue of a purchase by Buyer from Seller of 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Walletron, Inc. (the "Walletron Shares") for an aggregate consideration equal to $3,400,000 (the "Walletron Purchase Price").

(b) Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist in Buyer's due diligence review of Walletron. Buyer may exercise the Walletron Option (i) only in whole and not in part and (ii) only one time, at any time during the period commencing on the date of this Agreement and terminating on date that is 30 days after the date of this Agreement by providing written notice to Seller (an "Exercise Notice") of such exercise. Subject to Section 7.13(c), any exercise of the Walletron Option by Buyer shall create an irrevocable and binding obligation of Buyer and Seller to consummate the acquisition of the Walletron Shares concurrently with the Closing.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Buyer may rescind its exercise of the Walletron Option and the Exercise Notice if, and only if, in the 30-day period following the date of the Exercise Notice a material and adverse event occurs with respect to Walletron and Buyer delivers notice of option termination in writing to Seller prior to the expiration of such 30-day period. For the avoidance of doubt, Buyer may only acquire the Walletron Shares pursuant to this Section 7.13 concurrently with the Closing, and if this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, any prior exercise of the Walletron Option shall be cancelled and of no further force or effect.

(d) If the Walletron Option has been properly exercised and not rescinded or terminated in accordance with Section 7.13(c), at the Closing Seller shall assign and transfer to Buyer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Walletron Shares to Buyer and Buyer shall pay the Walletron Purchase Price to Seller by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by Seller.

ARTICLE VIII
ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 8.1. Use of Names; Intellectual Property.

(a) Seller is not conveying ownership rights or granting Buyer or the Companies a license to use any of the tradenames or trademarks of Seller or any Affiliate of Seller ("Seller Trademarks") (other than the Transferred Trademarks and the limited rights with respect to the Companies as set forth in Section 8.1(b)), and except as set forth in Section 8.1(b), after the Closing, Buyer shall not permit the Companies or any Affiliate of the Companies to use in any manner the names or marks of Seller or any Affiliate of Seller or any word that is similar in sound or appearance to such names or marks.

(b) Promptly following the Closing Date, (but no later than 90 days following the Closing Date), Buyer shall cause the Companies and any Affiliates thereof to (i) cease and discontinue any and all uses of the Seller Trademarks, (ii) remove, destroy or irrevocably strike over the labeling, stationery, forms, supplies, displays, advertising and promotional materials, manuals, and other materials existing as of the Closing Date that bear any Seller Trademarks, and (iii) remove all Seller Trademarks from all assets, websites, email and other online materials and from all signage and other displays. All goodwill associated with the use by the Companies or any Affiliate of the Companies of the Seller Trademarks shall inure to the benefit of Seller or its Affiliates, as applicable. Neither Buyer nor any of its Affiliates shall seek to register in any jurisdiction any trade, corporate or business name, Trademark or other name or source identifier that is a derivation, translation, adaptation, combination or variation of, or confusingly similar to, any of the Seller Trademarks.

(c) In the event that after the Closing Buyer becomes aware of any instance of any Software in its possession that is owned by or licensed to Seller or any of its Affiliates and that is not licensed to Buyer or the Companies, Buyer shall, and shall cause the Companies to, use reasonable best efforts to delete such instances of the Software as soon as practicable.

(d) If Buyer or any Affiliate of Buyer violates any of its obligations under this Section 8.1, Seller and its Affiliates may proceed against it in law or in equity for such damages or other relief as a court may deem appropriate. Buyer acknowledges that a violation of this Section 8.1 may cause Seller and its Affiliates irreparable harm which may not be adequately compensated for by money damages. Buyer therefore agrees that in the event of any actual or threatened violation of this Section 8.1, Seller and any of its Affiliates shall be entitled, in addition to other remedies that they may have, to a temporary restraining order and to preliminary and final injunctive relief against Buyer or such Affiliate of Buyer to prevent any violations of this Section 8.1, without the necessity of posting a bond.

Section 8.2. Tax Matters.

(a) Transfer Taxes. Buyer and Seller shall each be liable for and pay 50% of any transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration and other similar Taxes (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions (“Transfer Taxes”), the party primarily required by applicable Law to do so shall file the necessary Tax Returns and other documentation with respect to Transfer Taxes and, if required by applicable Law, non-preparing party shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, join in the execution of any such Tax Returns and other documentation; provided, however, that Seller shall be liable and pay 100% of any Transfer Taxes incurred in connection with the Reorganization, including any Transfer Taxes resulting from the transactions contemplated by Section 7.9.

(b) Tax Returns. (i) Seller shall prepare and timely file or cause to be prepared and timely filed when due (taking into account all extensions properly obtained) (A) all

Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to either Company (or, if the Walletron Option has been properly exercised and not rescinded or terminated, in each case, in accordance with Section 7.13, Walletron) on a combined, consolidated or unitary basis as a member of an Affiliated Group that includes Seller or any Affiliate of Seller (other than the Companies or Walletron) and (B) all other Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to either Company or, if the Walletron Option has been properly exercised and not rescinded or terminated, in each case, in accordance with Section 7.13, Walletron (taking into account all extensions properly obtained) for taxable periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date (such Tax Returns, "Seller Tax Returns"). With respect to Tax Returns described in clause (B) of the first sentence of this Section 8.2(b)(i), Seller shall (1) prepare and timely file any such Tax Returns in a manner consistent with past practice, except as required under this Agreement or as required by applicable Law and (2) provide such Tax Return to Buyer for its review and comment not later than 20 days prior to the due date for such Tax Return and shall consider in good faith any reasonable comments provided by Buyer no later than 20 days after receipt of such Tax Return (or, if earlier, 10 days prior to the due date for such Tax Return) with respect to such Tax Returns. Seller shall timely pay all Taxes due and payable with respect to any Seller Tax Return. Buyer shall timely file or cause to be timely filed when due (taking into account all extensions properly obtained) all other Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to either Company after the Closing Date (such Tax Returns, "Buyer Tax Returns"). To the extent any Buyer Tax Return includes a taxable period (or portion thereof) for which Seller would be responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e), Buyer shall (i) prepare and timely file any such Buyer Tax Returns in a manner consistent with past practice, except as required under this Agreement or as required by applicable Law and (ii) provide such Buyer Tax Return to Seller for its approval (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) not later than 20 days prior to the due date for such Buyer Tax Return, with Seller's response to be provided no later than 20 days after receipt of such Tax Return (or, if earlier, 10 days prior to the due date for such Tax Return). Seller shall, in accordance with Section 8.2(e)(iii), timely reimburse Buyer for all Taxes due and payable with respect to any such Buyer Tax Return to the extent Seller is liable for such Taxes pursuant to Section 8.2(e). (ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained or implied in this Agreement, after the Closing Date, neither Buyer nor any Affiliate of Buyer (including, after the Closing, the Companies) shall, without the prior written consent of Seller (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), grant any extension of any statute of limitation, or file or cause to be filed (A) any amended Tax Return, (B) any claim for Tax refund or (C) any Tax election, with respect to the Companies (or relating to its income, properties or operations), if any such grant or filing could have the effect of (1) increasing the Tax Liability of Seller or their respective Affiliates (other than any Company) or (2) increasing the Tax Liability of any Company with respect to any taxable period (or portion thereof) for which Seller would be responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(i).

(c) Refunds. Seller shall be entitled to any refund of (or credit against) Taxes of the Companies that are actually received by the Companies (or any Affiliate of the Companies, including Buyer) allocable to any taxable year or period that ends on or before the Closing Date and, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date, except for any such refunds or credits attributable to the carryback of an item of loss or deduction generated in a taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date and except to the extent any such refunds or credits are included in the calculation of Closing Date Working Capital, as determined pursuant to Section 4.5. Buyer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, make reasonable best efforts to secure any such refund or credit. Buyer shall (i) after the end of each calendar year, upon written request of Seller, use reasonable best efforts to inform Seller as to whether any such refund or credit is, or with the taking of action would be, available and (ii) pay over, or cause its Affiliates to pay over, to Seller any such refund or credit promptly after actual receipt thereof, net of any costs (including Taxes) incurred by Buyer or its Affiliates in connection with obtaining such refund or credit.

(d) Assistance and Cooperation. After the Closing Date, each of Seller and Buyer shall (and cause their respective Affiliates to):

(i) timely sign and deliver such certificates or forms as may be necessary or appropriate to establish an exemption from (or otherwise reduce), or file Tax Returns or other reports with respect to, Taxes described in paragraph (a) of this Section 8.2 (relating to sales, transfer and similar Taxes);

(ii) assist the other party in preparing any Tax Returns which such other party is responsible for preparing and filing, and in connection therewith, provide the other party with any necessary powers of attorney in a timely manner and promptly upon the reasonable request of such other party;

(iv) make available to the other and to any Taxing authority as reasonably requested all information, records, and documents relating to Taxes of the Companies (and, if the Walletron Option has been properly exercised and not rescinded or terminated, in each case, in accordance with Section 7.13, Walletron); and

(v) furnish the other with copies of all correspondence received from any Taxing authority in connection with any Tax audit or information request.

(e) Tax Indemnity. (i) Without limiting the generality or effect of any other provision hereof, from and after the Closing, Seller shall indemnify Buyer, Parent and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents representatives and Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Companies and, in the event the Walletron Option is exercised, Walletron) and hold each of them harmless against (A) any Taxes of the Companies for any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date and, with respect to any taxable period that begins before and ends after the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period"), any Taxes allocable (pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(vii)) to the portion of a Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date (in each case to the extent not otherwise included in the calculation of Closing Date Working Capital, as determined pursuant to Section 4.5), (B) Seller's share of the Transfer Taxes, if any, as set forth in Section 8.2(a), (C) any Liability of the Companies for the payment of the Taxes of another Person (1) arising as a result of being (or ceasing to be) a member of a Consolidated Tax Group

(or being included (or requiring to be included)) in any Tax Return relating thereto, (2) under any Contract entered into prior to the Closing Date (other than any Contract entered into in the ordinary course of business and not primarily relating Taxes), or (3) as a result of being a transferee or successor under applicable Law in a transaction consummated prior to the Closing Date and (D) Excluded Taxes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Tax indemnity provided under this Section 8.2(e) shall not cover Tax Liabilities resulting from any action taken after the Closing on the Closing Date by Buyer, the Companies or any of their respective Affiliates that is outside the ordinary course of business and not contemplated by this Agreement. (ii) Without limiting the generality or effect of any other provision hereof, from and after the Closing, Buyer shall indemnify Seller and its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and Affiliates and hold each of them harmless against all Taxes (A) of the Companies properly allocable to a Tax period or portion thereof beginning after the Closing Date, (B) Buyer's share of the Transfer Taxes, if any, as set forth in Section 8.2(a), and (C) described in clauses (B) and (C) of the definition of Assumed Taxes. (iii) Payment by the indemnifying party of any amount due under this Section 8.2(e) shall be made within 10 Business Days following written notice by the Indemnified Party that payment of such amounts to the appropriate Taxing authority is due; provided that the indemnifying party shall not be required to make any payment earlier than five Business Days before it is due to the appropriate Taxing authority. In the case of a Tax that is contested in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.2(e) below, payment of the Tax to the appropriate Taxing authority shall not be considered to be due earlier than the date a final determination to such effect is made by the appropriate Taxing authority or court. (iv) The parties agree that any indemnification payment made pursuant to this Section 8.2(e) shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price for Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by applicable Law. (v) Any disputes between the parties with respect to the Tax matters regarding the Companies in Section 8.2 shall be resolved by the Accounting Firm, whose fees and expenses shall be borne in accordance with Section 4.5(b). (vi) For purposes of this Section 8.2, Taxes (other than Transfer Taxes) with respect to a Straddle Period shall be allocated to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date (A) in the case of any real or personal property Taxes, ad valorem Taxes and similar periodic Taxes, by multiplying the amount of such Taxes for the entire Straddle Period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days during the Straddle Period up to and including the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire Straddle Period and (B) in the case of all other Taxes, by way of a closing of books, as though the relevant taxable period had ended on the Closing Date (provided that exemptions, allowances or deductions that are calculated on an annual basis, such as the deduction for depreciation, shall be apportioned on a daily basis). Notwithstanding the foregoing, any deductions attributable to Transaction Expenses that have not been reflected on a Seller Tax Return shall, insofar as permissible, be allocated to the taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date. (vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Seller and Buyer agree that Seller makes no representation, warranty, and provides no other assurance, with respect to the amount of any Tax Attributes of the Companies, or with respect to the availability on and after the Closing Date of any Tax Attributes of the Companies.

(f) Procedures Relating to Indemnity of Tax Claims. (i) If a Tax claim, audit, examination, notice of deficiency or other adjustment, assessment or redetermination shall be made or threatened against Buyer or Seller, as the case may be, or any of their Affiliates by any Taxing authority, which, if successful, would result in an indemnity payment pursuant to Section 8.2(e) (a “Tax Claim”), the indemnified party shall promptly notify the indemnifying party in writing of such Tax Claim stating the nature and basis of such Tax Claim and the amount thereof, to the extent known by the indemnified party. If notice of a Tax Claim is not given to the indemnifying party within a reasonable period of time to allow the indemnifying party to effectively contest such Tax Claim, or in reasonable detail to apprise the indemnifying party of the nature of the Tax Claim, in each case taking into account the facts and circumstances with respect to such Tax Claim, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to the indemnified party or any of their Affiliates if, and to the extent that, the indemnified party’s ability to effectively contest such Tax Claim is actually prejudiced as a result thereof. (ii) With respect to any Tax Claim that relates to a Tax for which Seller would be solely responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(i), Seller shall control at its expense all proceedings taken in connection with such Tax Claim (including selection of counsel), but shall not, without the prior written approval of Buyer (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), agree or consent to compromise or settle, either administratively or after the commencement of a Proceeding, any issue or claim arising in such Proceeding, or otherwise agree or consent to any Tax Liability, to the extent that any such compromise, settlement, consent or agreement may directly increase (A) the Tax Liability of Buyer or any of its Affiliates (other than any Company) or (B) the Tax Liability of any Company with respect to any taxable period (or portion thereof) for which Buyer would be responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(ii). (iii) With respect to any Tax Claim for which Buyer would be solely responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(ii), Buyer shall have the right to control at its expense all proceedings taken in connection with such Tax Claim (including selection of counsel), but shall not, without the prior written approval of Seller (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), agree or consent to compromise or settle, either administratively or after the commencement of a Proceeding, any issue or claim arising in such Proceeding, or otherwise agree or consent to any Tax Liability, to the extent that any such compromise, settlement, consent or agreement may directly increase (A) the Tax Liability of Seller or any of its Affiliates (other than any Company) or (B) the Tax Liability of any Company with respect to any taxable period (or portion thereof) for which Seller would be responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e)(i). (iv) With regard to a Tax Claim that is (A) related to any Company with regard to a Straddle Period and (B) would be described in Sections 8.2(e)(i) or (ii), but for not being the sole responsibility of either Seller or Buyer, Seller and Buyer shall jointly control and participate in all proceedings taken in connection with any such Tax Claim, and shall bear their own respective costs and expenses; provided, however, neither Seller nor Buyer shall agree or consent to compromise or settle, either administratively or after the commencement of a Proceeding, any issue or claim arising in such Proceeding, or otherwise agree or consent to any Tax Liability, without the prior written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). (v) Buyer and Seller shall cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other party, in connection with the resolution of any Tax Claims for which Buyer or Seller would be responsible pursuant to Section 8.2(e) (including by the provision of reasonably relevant records or information). The party requesting such cooperation shall pay the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the other party.

(g) 338(h)(10) Election. Seller shall join with Buyer in making an election under Section 338(h)(10) of the Code (and any corresponding election under state, local, and foreign Law) with respect to the purchase and sale of all issued and outstanding shares of the Companies hereunder (collectively, the “Section 338(h)(10) Election”). In furtherance of the preceding sentence, Buyer shall complete, execute and timely file with the appropriate Taxing authority any such forms provided by Seller pursuant to Section 4.4(h) and Seller shall execute and deliver to Buyer any other documents or forms as Buyer shall reasonably request or as are required by Law to effect the Section 338(h)(10) Election, in each case, as reasonably prepared by Buyer. Seller shall include any income, gain, loss, deduction, or other Tax item resulting from the Section 338(h)(10) Election on its Tax Returns to the extent required by Law, and shall take no position inconsistent with treating the purchase by Buyer of all issued and outstanding shares of the Companies as a transaction to which Section 338(h)(10) applies unless required by Law. The consideration paid for all issued and outstanding shares of the Companies hereunder and the Liabilities (to the extent included in amount realized for U.S. federal income Tax purposes) of the Companies shall be allocated among the assets of the Companies in accordance with Section 338 of the Code and their fair market values as shown on an allocation schedule provided by Buyer and approved, or deemed approved, by Seller (the "Purchase Price Allocation"). Within 90 days after the Adjustment Report Finalization Date, Buyer shall deliver to Seller a draft Purchase Price Allocation. If within 30 days after Seller's receipt of the draft Purchase Price Allocation, Seller has not objected in writing to such draft Purchase Price Allocation, it shall become final. In the event that Seller objects in writing within such 30-day period, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute. Any issues with respect to the Purchase Price Allocation which have not been finally resolved within 30 days following Seller's provision of an objection pursuant to this Section 8.2(g) shall be referred to the Accounting Firm, whose determination shall be final and binding upon the parties. To the extent that the Purchase Price is adjusted pursuant to Section 4.5 or other provision of this Agreement, the parties shall amend the Purchase Price Allocation to reflect such adjustments and each of Buyer and Seller shall file an amended IRS Form 8883 (Asset Allocation Statement Under Section 338) as required. Buyer, Seller and each of their Affiliates shall file all Tax Returns in a manner consistent with such Purchase Price Allocation (as it may be amended pursuant to this Section 8.2(g)), and none of the parties will voluntarily take any position inconsistent with the Purchase Price Allocation in any audit, inquiry, assessment, Proceeding or other similar event relating to Tax.

Section 8.3. Employee Matters.

(a) Prior to or at the Closing, except as set forth on Schedule 8.3(a), (i) the employment of each U.S. Business Employee not then employed by a Company, along with all Liabilities of Seller and its Affiliates attributable to each such Business Employee (other than Liability under any Employee Benefit Plan to the extent not otherwise addressed in Section 8.3(e), (f), (g), (h), (i), or (j), and, with respect to current liabilities, only to the extent reflected in Closing Date Working Capital) shall be transferred to one of the Companies and (ii) Buyer or one of its Affiliates (including the Companies) shall offer employment to each International Business Employee, effective as of the Closing, with terms and conditions of employment substantially similar in the aggregate to those provided by Seller prior to the Closing, including with respect to compensation and benefits and any other material terms, as required by applicable Law. Effective as of the Closing, each International Business Employee shall cease to be employed by Seller or any of its Affiliates, as applicable. Seller and its Affiliates shall be solely liable for any Liability (i) to any Business Employee that occurs by reason of a change in control of either Company or the Contemplated Transactions, including the Reorganization, (ii) to any International Business Employee, for all accrued vacation time with respect to employment periods through the Closing Date, (iii) for all claims under welfare benefit plans or retirement plans (other than with respect to rollover contributions and transferred accounts contemplated by Section 8.3(h) and (j), respectively) with respect to employment periods through the Closing Date, and (iv) for any severance or similar costs incurred by Seller or its Affiliates in connection with the termination of employment of any International Business Employee except to the extent caused by Buyer's failure to comply with this Section 8.3.

(b) Effective as of the Closing (or such later date mandated by Laws), each Affected Employee shall cease to be eligible to participate in the Employee Benefit Plans and any other employee benefit plan or arrangement maintained by Seller or any of its Affiliates or to accrue benefits thereunder with respect to services performed after the Closing.

(c) In addition to complying with all Laws regarding amount, types and changes in compensation, for a period commencing on the Closing Date and ending no earlier than the first anniversary of the Closing Date, Buyer shall take all commercially reasonable action necessary so that each Affected Employee receives (i) base wages, salaries, bonuses, commission arrangements and incentive compensation (which may be in the form of cash or equity incentives) at rates and with values substantially comparable in the aggregate to the rates and values of wages, salaries, bonuses, commission arrangements and incentive compensation (including cash and equity incentives) received by the Affected Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date, and (ii) employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to either (a) the employee benefits provided to the Affected Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date or (b) the employee benefits provided as of the date hereof by Parent to similarly situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries (or substantially similar benefits) (the arrangements under which such employee benefits are provided, the "Buyer's Benefits Programs"). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Buyer shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, provide severance benefits to any Affected Employee who experiences a termination of employment (including anyone whose employment terminates in connection with a proposed relocation of more than 35 miles) (excluding solely as a result of the Contemplated Transactions) during the one-year period beginning immediately after the Closing in an amount that is at least equal to the severance benefits that would have been paid to such employee pursuant to the layoff or severance arrangements maintained by Seller and its Affiliates and applicable to such Affected Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date, calculated on the basis of the Affected Employee's compensation and service at the time of the termination of employment. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Buyer agrees not to engage in any "mass layoff" or "plant closing" (as defined in WARN) for 90 days after the Closing Date.

(d) Buyer shall and shall cause its Affiliates to credit Affected Employees with all service credited to such Affected Employees by the Companies, Seller and their respective Affiliates as of the Closing in addition to service earned with Buyer or its Affiliates after the Closing for all purposes (including purposes of eligibility, vesting and levels of benefits, such as the amount of any vacation, sick days, severance, layoff and similar benefits under Buyer's Benefit Programs, and shall provide that Affected Employees may commence participation in Buyer's Benefit Programs immediately following the Closing Date. Buyer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, waive any pre-existing condition exclusions, evidence of insurability requirements, actively at work requirements or waiting periods for participation and coverage applicable under Buyer's Benefit Programs with respect to Affected Employees and their dependents. Buyer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, credit Affected Employees with any amounts paid under any of the Employee Benefit Plans prior to the Closing for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible, coinsurance or out-of-pocket requirements for the plan year that includes the Closing Date as if such amounts had been paid under a corresponding Buyer's Benefit Program.

(e) With respect to each U.S. Business Employee who is an Affected Employee, Buyer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, provide, recognize and honor the accrued but unused paid time off ("PTO") and any accrued sick leave hours under the Western Union Company Transition Sick Leave Policy – U.S. Only as of the Closing Date to the extent reflected in Closing Date Working Capital. Neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates (other than the Companies) shall have any Liability after the Closing for such PTO or accrued sick leave to the extent reflected in Closing Date Working Capital.

(f) Without limiting the comparability requirement described in paragraph (c) above, Buyer shall, or shall cause one of its Affiliates, to pay bonuses to Affected Employees who were U.S. Business Employees with respect to the year in which Closing occurs that, in the aggregate, are not less than the amount of bonus accruals reflected in Closing Date Working Capital. Seller will pay all bonuses to Affected Employees with respect to 2018 except to the extent such payment amounts are reflected in the Closing Date Working Capital.

(g) Buyer shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, establish or maintain a healthcare flexible spending account program and a dependent care flexible spending account program for each Affected Employee who is a U.S. Business Employee and who, in the portion of the calendar year prior to the Closing Date, contributed to the healthcare flexible spending account program or dependent care flexible spending account program, as applicable, maintained by Seller or its Affiliates (the "Seller FSA Program"). The beginning balance as of the Closing Date in each of Buyer's healthcare spending account program and dependent care flexible spending account program, as applicable, shall be the unused portion of the balance in the applicable healthcare spending account program and dependent care flexible spending account program maintained by Seller or its Affiliates. Buyer shall assume and be solely responsible for all claims for reimbursement by such Affected Employees, whether incurred prior to, on or after the Closing Date, that have not been paid in full as of the Closing Date, which claims shall be paid pursuant to and under the terms of Buyer's flexible spending account programs. If the aggregate amount withheld from such Affected Employees' compensation under the Seller FSA Program for the year in which the Closing occurs exceeds the aggregate amount of reimbursements paid to such Affected Employees prior to the Closing Date under the Seller FSA Program for such plan year, Seller shall transfer (or cause to be transferred) to Buyer within 30 days after the Closing Date a cash payment equal to such excess, if any (which amount shall not be included in Closing Date Working Capital). If the aggregate amount of reimbursements paid to such Affected Employees under the Seller FSA Program prior to the Closing Date for the year in which the Closing occurs exceeds the aggregate amount withheld prior to the Closing Date from such Affected Employees' compensation under the Seller FSA Program for such plan year, Buyer shall transfer to Seller within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date a cash payment equal to such excess, if any (which amount shall not be included in Closing Date Working Capital). Buyer and Seller intend that the actions to be taken pursuant to this Section 8.3(g) be treated as an assumption by Buyer of the portion of the Seller FSA Program and the elections made thereunder attributable to such Affected Employees consistent with Revenue Ruling 2002-32.

(h) As of the Closing Date, Buyer shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to maintain, establish or designate a tax-qualified defined contribution plan (the “Buyer 401(k) Plan”) in which the Affected Employees who are U.S. Business Employees are eligible to participate. Buyer shall cause the Buyer 401(k) Plan to accept rollover contributions of “eligible rollover distributions” (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) elected by any such Affected Employee from any tax-qualified Employee Benefit Plan (including any loan notes) in which such Continuing Employee participated prior to the Closing.

(i) Immediately prior to the Closing, the Companies shall make any and all payments to the Affected Employees relating to all amounts that would be considered earned under the Employee Benefit Plans set forth on Schedule 8.3(h) (the “Business Plans”) as of the Closing.

(j) Effective as of the Closing, Buyer shall assume the Liabilities under the SISP attributable to the Affected Employees and shall administer such Liabilities and make associated payments to Affected Employees in accordance with the terms of the SISP and all elections thereunder.

(k) After the Closing Date, Buyer, its Affiliates and the Companies shall have the Liability for, and neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates shall have any liability or obligation for, short-term disability benefits, sick pay or salary continuation (and any medical dental and health benefits or claims incurred after the Closing Date) for the Affected Employees for periods after the Closing Date. Seller shall have the Liability therefor in respect of all pre-Closing periods. For purposes of this paragraph, a medical, dental or other claim shall be deemed incurred when the treatment for which the Affected Employee (or a dependent thereof) is entitled to a benefit is performed or undertaken, as applicable.

(l) Seller has provided an accurate and complete list as of the date hereof of each Business Employee who experienced an “employment loss” (as defined in WARN) during the 90 days prior to the date hereof, stating for each such employee the date of Employment Loss, the employee’s position and work location. Provided that the aforementioned list is accurate and complete, Buyer agrees that it shall have all Liabilities with respect to any “mass layoff” or “plant closing” (as defined in WARN) triggered by its actions with respect to the Business Employees after the Closing Date. Seller shall have all Liabilities with respect to any mass layoff or plant closing triggered by its actions prior to the Closing Date, and all such Liabilities arising after the Closing Date to the extent that they are the result of inaccuracies or omissions in the aforementioned list of employment losses.

(m) Regardless of anything else contained herein, the parties do not intend for this Agreement to amend any plans or arrangements or create any rights or obligations except between the parties. No Affected Employee or other current or former employee of the Companies, including any beneficiary or dependent thereof, or any other person not a party to this Agreement, shall be entitled to assert any claim hereunder. Nothing herein expressed or implied shall confer upon any of the Affected Employees or any other person any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period, of any nature or kind whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 8.4. Securities Law Legends. Buyer agrees and understands that the Shares have not been, and shall not be, registered under the Securities Act or the securities Laws of any state and that the Shares may be sold or disposed of only in one or more transactions registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities Laws or as to which an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities Laws is available. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that no person has any right to require Seller to cause the registration of any of the Shares. The certificates representing the Shares may contain a legend similar to the following and other legends necessary or appropriate under applicable state securities Laws:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 (THE "ACT") OR ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, TRANSFERRED OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF UNLESS A REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE ACT AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS WITH RESPECT TO SUCH SHARES IS EFFECTIVE OR UNLESS THE COMPANY IS IN RECEIPT OF AN OPINION OF COUNSEL SATISFACTORY TO IT TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH SHARES MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT REGISTRATION UNDER THE ACT AND SUCH LAWS.

Section 8.5. Insurance; Risk of Loss. Seller shall, and shall cause the Companies to, keep insurance policies or self-insured retentions currently maintained for the benefit of the Companies covering their business, assets and current or former employees and the Contributed Assets, as the case may be (the "Insurance Coverage"), or suitable replacements therefor, in full force and effect through the close of business on the Closing Date. From and prior to the Closing Date, Seller agrees to take such actions as may be reasonably necessary not to voluntarily relinquish or terminate policies providing Insurance Coverage if doing so would adversely affect the availability of such Insurance Coverage. The availability of Insurance Coverage with respect to any claim shall be subject in all respects to Seller's applicable deductibles, retention and similar limits. From and after the Closing Date, the Companies shall be solely responsible for all insurance coverage and related risk of loss based on claims pending as of the Closing Date and claims made after the Closing Date, without regard to when the event giving rise to any such claim occurred, with respect to the Companies and their business, assets and current or former employees. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, Seller and Buyer agree that all claims with respect to insured events relating to the Business occurring prior to the Closing will be administered in all material respects in accordance with the terms of the Insurance Coverage. Seller will use its reasonable best efforts to provide Buyer with the benefit of the Insurance Coverage with respect to such claims to the extent Losses occurring prior to the Closing related to the Business are covered notwithstanding the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions; provided that (a) such recovery will be net of any deductibles or self-insured retention amounts, costs of any retroactive insurance premiums or other amounts paid or expenses incurred in connection with any insured claims made after the Closing under the Insurance Coverage and (b) Seller shall have no obligation to Buyer or any Company hereunder to prioritize Company claims over other claims of Seller or any of its Affiliates. In the event of any failure by any insurer to satisfy any claim, Seller and its Affiliates shall have no liability or obligation to Buyer pursuant to this Section 8.5; provided, that the foregoing shall not preclude any liability of Seller for any breach by Seller of this Section 8.5. To the extent that after the Closing any party hereto requires any information regarding claim data, payroll or other information relating to the Companies in order to make filings with insurance carriers or regulators from another party hereto, such other party shall promptly supply such information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8.5, nothing in this Section 8.5 shall require Seller or any of its Affiliates to expend money (other than customary legal advisor costs), commence or participate in any Proceeding or offer or grant any accommodation or concession (financial or otherwise) to any third party.

Section 8.6. Substitute Guaranties; Replacement Letters of Credit. At or prior to Closing, Buyer shall (a) make Buyer or one of its Affiliates substituted for Seller or any of its Affiliates (other than the Companies) in those guarantees, letters of comfort, indemnities or similar arrangements entered into by Seller or any of its Affiliates (other than the Companies) listed on Schedule 8.6(a) (the "Guaranties"), (b) cooperate in Seller's efforts to make Seller and its Affiliates (other than the Companies) fully released from all of its obligations under the Guaranties (including if necessary, by replacing collateral for such obligations of Seller and its Affiliates and upon receipt, if any, of any cash or collateral deposits, returning such to Seller) and (c) provide for replacement letters of credit for the letters of credit included in the Guaranties; provided, however, if Buyer fails to take such actions prior to Closing, Buyer shall take such actions, as promptly as possible, and effective as promptly practicable, following the Closing. If Buyer is unable to effect such a substitution and release with respect to any Guaranties after using reasonable best efforts to do so, Buyer shall indemnify Seller from any Losses arising from such Guaranties. Without limiting the foregoing, after the Closing, Buyer will not, and will not permit any of its Affiliates to, renew, extend, amend or supplement any loan, contract, lease or other obligation that is covered by a Guaranty without providing Seller with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Seller that Seller's Guaranty has been released.

Section 8.7. Assistance with Financial Reporting. For a period of six years after the Closing, Buyer shall provide reasonable assistance to Seller during normal business hours, upon reasonable advance notice in connection with any reporting obligations of Seller pursuant to the Securities Act or Exchange Act or any of the rules or regulations promulgated thereunder and any other financial reporting obligations of Seller, in each case, related to the Business or the Companies during any period prior to the Closing.

Section 8.8. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation; No-Hire.

(a) Seller hereby agrees that Seller shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, for a period of two years after the Closing Date, engage in, control or manage any business that engages in the Business (whether utilizing the Sprint Platform or any other platform). Nothing herein shall prohibit Seller and its Subsidiaries from (i) being a passive owner of not more than 5% of the outstanding stock of any class of an entity which is publicly traded, so long as such Person has no active participation in the business of such corporation, (ii) engaging in any business activities (other than the Business) that were conducted by Seller and its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing Date or the one year period preceding the Closing Date in the ordinary course and in accordance with its past practices, (iii) acquiring an ownership interest in any Person; provided, however, that if 10% or more of the gross revenues of such Person are attributable to a Business, Seller shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to, divest such Business within 12 months of such acquisition or (iv) providing any Seller Service the primary purpose of which is for the collection of payments by a United States customer from outside of the United States, but which may include the incidental or occasional collection and transmission of US dollar payments within the United States for such customer.

(b) Seller hereby agrees that Seller shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, for a period of one year after the Closing Date, (i) solicit any Affected Employee to leave the employ of the Companies or (ii) hire any Affected Employee. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the foregoing shall not be deemed breached by and shall not prevent Seller and its Subsidiaries from, (A) undertaking general solicitations of employment not specifically targeted at any of the foregoing employees or (B) soliciting or hiring any of the foregoing employees from and after the date that is six months following the termination of employment of any such employee by the Companies.

(c) The foregoing clauses (a) and (b) shall terminate and be of no further force or effect, (i) with respect to any business or Subsidiary of Seller that is disposed of to a Person or Persons who are not controlled by Seller or (ii) with respect to Seller and its Subsidiaries if Seller is involved in a Business Combination. "Business Combination" means any transaction or series of transactions (A) pursuant to which any Person or group of Persons acquires beneficial ownership of 50% or more of the outstanding voting power of Seller or 50% or all or substantially all of the assets of Seller and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis or (B) in the form of a merger, reorganization, combination or other structure, as a result of which, the stockholders of Seller immediately prior to such transaction beneficially own less than 50% of the surviving or resulting Person from such transaction.

Section 8.9. On-Going Actions. During the period between the date hereof and the Closing, Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts to take the actions contemplated in Sections 1.7 through 1.10 of Schedule A of the Transition Services Agreement as though the Transition Services Agreement were in effect as of the date hereof and without the use of the service contemplated in Schedule B of the Transaction Services Agreement (it being understood and agreed that such actions may not be completed prior to Closing and following Closing, the Transition Services Agreement, and not this Agreement, shall govern the actions to be taken under Section Sections 1.7 through 1.10 of Schedule A of Schedule A of the Transition Services Agreement).

(d) There shall have been delivered to Seller a certificate to the effect of clauses (a) through (c), dated the Closing Date, signed on behalf of Buyer by a duly authorized officer of Buyer.

Section 10.2. Consents. The waiting period under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated and no injunction or restraining order shall have been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction and be in effect which restrains or prohibits the purchase and sale of the Shares as contemplated by Section 2.1.

Section 10.3. Other Deliveries. Buyer and Parent shall have delivered to Seller all of the other documents and agreements required to be delivered at Closing pursuant to Section 4.3.

Section 10.4. Frustration of Closing Conditions. Seller may not rely on the failure of any condition set forth in this Article X to be satisfied if such failure was caused by Seller's failure to cause the Closing to occur in violation on its obligations contained herein, including as required by Section 7.3.

ARTICLE XI
TERMINATION

Section 11.1. Termination. Anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date:

(a) by the mutual consent of Buyer and Seller;

(b) by Buyer if Buyer is not then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and if Seller shall have breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement which would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Article IX, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days following written notice by Buyer to Seller of such breach;

(c) by Seller if Seller is not then in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and if Buyer shall have breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement which would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Article X, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days following written notice by Seller to Buyer of such breach;

(d) by Buyer or Seller if any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or other United States Governmental Body shall have issued a final and non-appealable order, decree or ruling permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 11.1(d) shall not be available to any party whose failure to take any action required to fulfill any of such party's (or such party's Affiliates') obligations under this Agreement shall have been the primary cause to such order, decree or ruling;

(e) by Buyer or Seller if the Closing shall not have occurred on or before the Outside Date; provided, however, that if as of the Outside Date all of the conditions set forth in Articles IX and X shall have been satisfied or, to the extent permitted, waived (other than (A) those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and the condition to deliver the Reorganization Certificate, each of which remains capable of being satisfied and (B) those conditions set forth in Section 9.2 or Section 10.2), then the Outside Date shall be automatically extended for three months after the Outside Date; provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 11.1(e) shall not be available to any party whose failure to take any action required to fulfill any of such party's (or such party's Affiliates') obligations under this Agreement shall have been the primary cause of the failure of the Closing to occur prior to the Outside Date;

(f) by Buyer in the event (i) the conditions set forth in Article IX shall have been satisfied or, to the extent permitted waived (other than (A) those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, each of which remains capable of being satisfied and (B) those conditions set forth in Section 10.2) and (ii) Seller fails to consummate the Closing on the date the Closing was to have occurred pursuant to Section 4.1.

(g) by Seller in the event (i) the conditions set forth in Article IX shall have been satisfied or, to the extent permitted, waived (other than (A) those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and the condition to deliver the Reorganization Certificate, each of which remains capable of being satisfied and (B) those conditions set forth in Section 9.2) and (ii) Buyer fails to consummate the Closing (including paying the Preliminary Purchase Price) on the date the Closing was to have occurred pursuant to Section 4.1.

Section 11.2. Notice of Termination. Any party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party to this Agreement.

Section 11.3. Buyer Termination Fee. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 11.1(g), then upon notice from Seller, Buyer shall promptly, but in no event later than three business days after the date of such termination, pay to the Seller a fee of $40,000,000 (the "Buyer Termination Fee"). Any Buyer Termination Fee paid to the Seller pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by the Seller to Buyer for such purpose.

Section 11.4. Effect of Termination. In the event that this Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to this Article XI, all further obligations of the parties under this Agreement (other than Section 7.6(c), Section 7.6(d), Section 11.3, this Section 11.4 and Section 13.8) shall be terminated without further liability of any party to the other; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for its willful breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 12.1. Survival. The representations and warranties contained in Article V and Article VI shall survive the Closing and shall terminate 18 months after the Closing Date. The covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement shall terminate on the Closing Date, unless a specific covenant or agreement requires performance after the Closing Date, in which case such covenant or agreement shall survive for a period of 30 days following the date on which the performance of such covenant or agreement is required to be completed.

Section 12.2. Indemnification by Seller.

(a) Following the Closing, subject to the terms of this Article XII, Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and its Affiliates (including the Companies) and their officers, directors, employees and representatives (collectively, the “Buyer Indemnified Persons”) from and against, without duplication, any Losses incurred or suffered by any Buyer Indemnified Person arising out of or resulting from (i) prior to the expiration in accordance with Section 12.1, any breach or inaccuracy of any of the representations or warranties made by Seller in Article V of this Agreement as of the date of this Agreement or as if such representation or warranty was made on and as of the Closing, (ii) prior to the expiration in accordance with Section 12.1, any breach by Seller to perform any of its covenants or agreements in this Agreement that requires performance after the Closing Date, (iii) Taxes to the extent provided under Section 8.2(e), and (iv) any Excluded Liabilities.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, (i) with respect to claims for indemnification arising under Section 12.2(a)(i) (other than for a breach or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties contained in the Seller Fundamental Representations), the cumulative indemnification obligations of Seller shall in no event exceed $2,812,500 (the “Cap”), (ii) with respect to claims arising under (A) Section 12.2(a)(i) for a breach or inaccuracy of a Seller Fundamental Representation, (B) Section 12.2(a)(ii) or (C) Section 12.2(a)(iii), the cumulative indemnification obligations of Seller shall in no event exceed the Purchase Price (the “Purchase Price Cap”), (iii) with respect to claims for indemnification arising under Section 12.2(a)(i) (other than for a breach or inaccuracy of the Seller Fundamental Representations), Seller shall not be required to indemnify any Buyer Indemnified Person until the aggregate amount of Losses incurred or suffered by the Buyer Indemnified Persons exceeds $2,812,500 (the “Deductible”), after which, Seller shall only be obligated for such aggregate Losses in excess of Deductible up to the Cap. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the limitations set forth in this Section 12.2(b) shall not apply in respect of claims for indemnification under Section 12.2(a)(iv) or Losses incurred by the Buyer Indemnified Persons in respect of any Fraud.

Section 12.3. Indemnification by Buyer.

(a) Following the Closing, subject to the terms of this Article XII, Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Seller and its Affiliates (excluding the Companies) and their officers, directors, employees and representatives (collectively, the “Seller Indemnified Persons” and, together with the Buyer Indemnified Persons, an “Indemnified Party”) from and against any Losses incurred or suffered by any Seller Indemnified Person arising out of or resulting from (i) any breach or inaccuracy of any of the representations or warranties made by Buyer in Article VI of this Agreement as of the date of this Agreement or as if such representation or warranty was made on and as of the Closing, (ii) any breach of Buyer to perform any of its covenants in this Agreement that requires performance after the Closing Date or (iii) any Assumed Liabilities.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, (i) with respect to claims for indemnification arising under Section 12.3(a)(i) (other than for a breach or inaccuracy of the Buyer Fundamental Representations), the cumulative indemnification obligations of Buyer shall in no event exceed $2,812,500, (ii) with respect to claims arising under (A) Section 12.3(a)(i) for a breach or inaccuracy of the Buyer Fundamental Representations or (B) Section 12.3(a)(ii), the cumulative indemnification obligations of Buyer shall in no event exceed the Purchase Price, (iii) with respect to claims for indemnification arising under Section 12.3(a)(i) (other than for a breach or inaccuracy of the Buyer Fundamental Representations), Buyer shall not be required to indemnify any Seller Indemnified Person until the aggregate amount of Losses incurred or suffered by the Seller Indemnified Persons exceeds $2,812,500. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) except for clause (ii) of this Section 12.3(b), none of the limitations set forth in this Section 12.3(b) shall apply to claims for indemnification under Section 12.3(a)(ii) or claims arising out of a breach of the Buyer Fundamental Representations, and (ii) none of the limitations set forth in this Section 12.3(b) shall apply to claims for indemnification under Section 12.3(a)(iii).

Section 12.4. Termination of Indemnification. The obligations to indemnify and hold harmless a party hereto in respect of a breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty, covenant or agreement shall terminate on the applicable survival termination date (as set forth in Section 12.1), unless an Indemnified Party shall have incurred a Loss prior to such applicable survival termination date and made an Indemnification Claim (as defined below) pursuant to Section 12.2 or 12.3, subject to the terms and conditions of Article XII, prior to such termination date, as applicable, including by delivering a Claim Notice (as defined below) to the Indemnifying Party (as defined below). If an Indemnified Party has made a proper Indemnification Claim for indemnification pursuant to Sections 12.2 or 12.3 prior to such termination date, then such claim for such Loss incurred (and only such claim for such Loss incurred), if then unresolved, shall not be extinguished by the passage of the deadlines set forth in Section 12.1.

Section 12.5. Procedures Relating to Indemnification. An Indemnified Party shall give prompt written notice (a “Claim Notice”) to the party or parties obligated to provide indemnification (the “Indemnifying Party”) after the Indemnified Party first becomes aware (and in any event within 30 days thereof) of the basis for a claim for indemnification pursuant to this Article XII (including any Third Party Claim) (such claim, an “Indemnification Claim”), and such Claim Notice shall contain (a) a reasonably detailed description and, if reasonably available or determinable, the Loss incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party together with such supporting documents reasonably available to such Indemnified Party, (b) a reasonably detailed explanation of the basis for the Indemnification Claim to the extent of the facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (c) a demand for payment of such Loss; provided, that failure to give such notification shall not affect such Indemnified Party’s right to indemnification hereunder and shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any of its obligations under this Article XII except to the extent the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced by such failure.

Section 12.6. Notice and Opportunity To Defend. If there occurs an indemnifiable event which involves any claim or the commencement of any action or proceeding by a third Person, including any Governmental Body (a “Third Party Claim”), the Indemnified Party shall give such Indemnifying Party prompt written notice (and in any event within 30 days of such Third Party Claim) of such Third Party Claim or the commencement thereof. The failure to provide prompt notice as provided herein shall relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations hereunder only if, and to the extent that, such failure actually prejudices the Indemnifying Party hereunder. The Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to (a) participate in the defense of any such Third Party Claim or (b) assume the defense thereof, with counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to assume the defense (unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Indemnified Party) if (i) the Third Party Claim relates primarily to any criminal Proceeding, (ii) the Third Party Claim primarily seeks an injunction or equitable relief against the Indemnified Party, or (iii) the Third Party Claim is one in which the Indemnifying Party is also a party and, based upon the advice of counsel, joint representation would be inappropriate or there may be legal defenses available to the Indemnified Party which are inconsistent from those available to the Indemnifying Party. After notice from the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party of such election to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party hereunder for any legal costs or expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except as otherwise provided in this Article XII. The Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party agree to cooperate reasonably with each other and their respective counsel in connection with the defense, negotiation or settlement of any such Proceeding or asserted Liability. If the Indemnifying Party elects to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim as contemplated hereunder, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in (but not control) at its own expense in the defense of such Proceeding or asserted Liability. If the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of a Proceeding, no settlement or compromise thereof may be effected (A) by the Indemnifying Party without the written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) unless (1) the settlement seeks only monetary relief and all such relief provided is paid or satisfied in full by the Indemnifying Party, (2) the settlement or compromise provides for a full release by the party of the Indemnified Party with respect to the claim(s) being settled, and (3) the settlement or compromise does not contain any admission of finding or wrongdoing on behalf of the Indemnified Party or (B) by the Indemnified Party without the consent of the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume the defense of a Proceeding, neither the Indemnifying

Party nor the Indemnified Party may settle or compromise any such Proceeding without the consent of the other party. Except as contemplated hereunder, in no event shall an Indemnifying Party be liable for any settlement or compromise effected without its prior written consent. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Article XII, the Indemnifying Party shall be liable for the fees and expenses of counsel employed by the Indemnified Party for any period during which the Indemnifying Party has not assumed the defense thereof (other than during any period in which the Indemnified Party shall have failed to give a Claim Notice of the Third Party Claim as provided above), provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall only be obligated to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties. If the Indemnifying Party chooses to defend or prosecute any Third Party Claim, (1) the parties shall cooperate in the defense or prosecution thereof and (2) the Indemnifying Party shall pursue the defense or settlement of such Third Party Claim in good faith. The provisions of this Section 12.6 shall not apply to the conduct of any Tax Claim, the conduct of which shall be governed by Section 8.2(e).

Section 12.7. Treatment of Indemnification Payments. The parties agree that any indemnification payments made pursuant to this Article XII shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price for Tax purposes, unless otherwise required by applicable Law.

Section 12.8. Additional Matters; Manner of Payment.

(a) The right to indemnification or any other remedy based on representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement, any Buyer Ancillary Agreement or any Seller Ancillary Agreement shall not be affected by any investigation conducted at any time, or any knowledge acquired (or capable of being acquired) at any time, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Closing Date, with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of, or compliance with, any such representation, warranty, covenant or agreement.

(b) If an Indemnified Party receives a payment in respect of Losses after the Indemnifying Party has paid the Indemnified Party under any indemnification provision of this Agreement in respect of such Losses, the Indemnified Party must promptly notify the Indemnifying Party and promptly pay to the Indemnifying Party the extent of such payment within five business days after receipt. Each Indemnified Party shall take, and cause its Affiliates to take, all steps as required by Law to mitigate any Loss upon becoming aware of any event or circumstance that would be reasonably expected to, or does, give rise thereto. An Indemnified Party's right to indemnification pursuant to Sections 12.2 or 12.3, as applicable, shall be reduced by the amount paid by a third party (including an insurance company or any third party owing an indemnification or similar obligation to the Indemnified Party), or paid by such third party to another for the account or benefit of Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, with respect to the settlement or resolution of a claim for which Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, was entitled to indemnification hereunder. If an Indemnifying Party makes any payment for any Losses suffered or incurred by an Indemnified Party pursuant to the provisions of this Article VII, such Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated, to the extent of such payment, to all rights and remedies of the Indemnified Party to any insurance benefits or other claims of the Indemnified Party with respect to such Losses and with respect to the claim giving rise to such Losses.

(c) The amount of any and all Losses shall be determined net of any amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party under insurance policies or indemnification by, reimbursement or cash receipts from, or indemnification agreement with any third-party with respect to such Losses, in each case, net of reasonable costs of collection resulting from making any claim thereunder. Buyer shall not make any claim for indemnification under this Article VII or Section 8.2(e) to the extent any matter that was taken into account in the determination of Working Capital or the calculation of any adjustment to the Purchase Price in Article IV.

(d) With respect to indemnification claims made under Sections 12.2(a)(i) or 12.3(a)(i), for purposes of determining breach and calculating the amount of any Losses attributable to any such breach, inaccuracy or noncompliance, except in the case of Section 5.4, Section 5.5(a), Section 5.20 and the Listing Representations, all references to “material,” “materiality,” “material respects,” “Material Adverse Effect” and similar qualifications shall be disregarded.

(e) Any payments required to be made by Seller to any Buyer Indemnified Person pursuant to this Article XII or Section 8.2(e) shall first be made as follows:

(i) First, from Seller until such Losses equal $2,812,500;

(ii) Second, with respect to Losses covered by the R&W Policy, under the R&W Policy; and

(iii) Then, if and to the extent recoveries and amounts available to be claimed under the R&W Policy have been exhausted for Losses and Indemnification Claims remain unsatisfied, the Buyer Indemnified Person shall then be entitled to pursue recovery of such remaining unsatisfied Losses from Seller directly, subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in this Article XII

Section 12.9. Exclusive Remedy. Except with respect to disputes related to the Purchase Price adjustments in Section 4.5 (which shall be governed exclusively by Section 4.5), the indemnification provisions contained in this Article XII, subject to the limitations set forth herein, shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available to any party in connection with any Losses arising out of or resulting from this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions following the Closing. The foregoing notwithstanding, nothing in this Section 12.9 shall limit or restrict the ability or right of any party hereto to seek injunctive or other equitable relief pursuant to Section 13.12 for any breach or alleged breach of any provision of this Agreement or in respect of Fraud; provided, that any procedures in respect of and limitations on Losses in this Article XII, to the extent applicable, shall in no event be diminished or circumvented by such relief. The parties agree that the provisions in this Agreement relating to indemnification, and the limits imposed on the remedies hereunder with respect to this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions were specifically bargained for between sophisticated parties and were specifically taken into account in the determination of the amounts to be paid to Seller hereunder.

ARTICLE XIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 13.1. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal Laws (as opposed to the conflict of laws provisions) of the State of Delaware subject to Section 13.16.

Section 13.2. Public Announcements. The initial press release concerning the Contemplated Transactions shall be in substantially the form agreed to by Seller and Parent provided, however, that the foregoing shall not preclude communications or disclosures necessary to implement the provisions of this Agreement or to comply with the accounting and the Securities and Exchange Commission disclosure obligations or the rules of any stock exchange, in which case the other party shall be advised and the parties shall consult in good faith with each other on the contents of such communication or disclosure prior to its publication. No party shall deliberately make any public statement materially inconsistent therewith.

Section 13.3. Notices. Section 13.4. Successors and Assigns.

(a) The rights of either party under this Agreement shall not be assignable by such party hereto prior to the Closing without the written consent of the other party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Buyer shall have the right, without the prior written consent of Seller, to assign all or any portion of their rights, interests, and obligations under this Agreement to (i) any Affiliate (so long as Buyer and Parent remains fully liable for all of its obligations hereunder) and/or (ii) any Financing Source (as defined below) (so long as Buyer and Parent remains fully liable for all of its obligations hereunder) for purposes of creating a security interest herein or otherwise assigning collateral in respect of any debt financing.

(b) Following the Closing, neither party may assign any of its rights hereunder or delegate its duties to any third Person without the written consent of the other party, except that any party may assign its rights and delegate its duties hereunder to an Affiliate. Any assignment hereunder (whether before or after the Closing) shall not relieve the assigning party of its obligations hereunder. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any Person other than the parties and successors and assigns permitted by this Section 13.4 and pursuant to Article XI and Sections 8.2(e), 8.5 and 13.16 any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 13.5. Access to Records after Closing.

(a) For a period of six years after the Closing Date, Seller and its representatives shall have reasonable access to the personnel and all of the books and records of the Companies to the extent that such access may reasonably be required by Seller in connection with matters relating to or affected by the operations of the Companies prior to the Closing Date.

Buyer agrees to maintain such records in readable and readily accessible format during such six-year period. After such six-year period, Buyer may destroy or dispose of such records after providing at least 60 days' advance written notice to Seller and an opportunity for Seller to obtain, at the cost of Seller, copies of any such records. Such access shall be afforded by Buyer upon receipt of reasonable advance notice and during normal business hours. Seller shall be solely responsible for any costs or expenses incurred by it pursuant to this Section 13.5(a) and shall reimburse Buyer for any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by it pursuant to this Section 13.5(a).

(b) For a period of six years after the Closing Date, Buyer and its representatives shall have reasonable access to the personnel and all of the books and records relating to the Companies which Seller or any of their Affiliates may retain after the Closing Date. Seller agrees to maintain such records in readable and readily accessible format during such six-year period. After such six-year period, Seller may destroy or dispose of such records after providing at least 60 days' advance written notice to Buyer and an opportunity for Buyer to obtain, at the cost of Buyer, copies of any such records. Such access shall be afforded by Seller and their Affiliates upon receipt of reasonable advance notice and during normal business hours. Seller agrees to maintain such records in readable and readily accessible format during such six-year period. Buyer shall be solely responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by it pursuant to this Section 13.5(b) and shall reimburse Seller for any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by it pursuant to this Section 13.5(b).

(c) Neither Buyer nor Seller shall be obligated to provide the other party with access to any books or records (including personnel files) pursuant to this Section 13.5 where such access would violate any Law, privilege or confidentiality obligation.

Section 13.6. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement, the Exhibits and Schedules referred to herein, the documents delivered pursuant hereto and the Confidentiality Agreement contain the entire understanding of the parties hereto with regard to the subject matter contained herein or therein, and supersede all other prior representations, warranties, agreements, understandings or letters of intent between or among any of the parties hereto. This Agreement shall not be amended, modified or supplemented except by a written instrument signed by an authorized representative of each of the parties hereto. Section 13.13, the last sentence of this Section 13.6, and Section 13.16 of this Agreement may not be amended or modified in whole or in part in a manner that adversely affects the rights of the Financing Source Related Parties thereunder without the prior written consent of the requisite commitment parties having consent over amendments to this Agreement pursuant to the Commitment Letter.

Section 13.7. Waivers. Any term or provision of this Agreement may be waived, or the time for its performance may be extended, by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof. Any such waiver shall be validly and sufficiently authorized for the purposes of this Agreement if, as to any party, it is authorized in writing by an authorized representative of such party. For this purpose, an email, even if it includes a signature block of the sender, shall not be considered a "writing", although an electronic copy of a document duly executed on behalf of a party hereto shall be considered a "writing" even if transmitted by email or other electronic means. The failure of any party hereto to enforce at any time any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision, nor in any way to affect the validity of this Agreement or any part hereof or the right of any party thereafter to enforce each and every such provision. No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 13.8. Expenses. Except as expressly set forth herein, each party hereto shall pay all costs and expenses incident to its negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and to its performance and compliance with all agreements and conditions contained herein on its part to be performed or complied with, including the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and independent public accountants.

Section 13.9. Partial Invalidity. Wherever possible, each provision hereof shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but in case any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent, but only to the extent, of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without invalidating the remainder of such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or provisions or any other provisions hereof, unless such a construction would be unreasonable.

Section 13.10. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original instrument, but all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement, and shall become binding when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties hereto and delivered to Seller and Buyer.

Section 13.11. Further Assurances. On and after the Closing Date each party hereto shall take such other actions and execute such other documents and instruments of conveyance and transfer as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto from time to time to effectuate or confirm the transfer of the Shares to Buyer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 13.12. Jurisdiction; Specific Performance. Except as provided herein with respect to non-judicial determinations and in Section 13.16, any Proceeding hereunder or in respect of the Contemplated Transaction may only be brought in federal or state court in Wilmington, Delaware. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 13.13. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto waives the right to a trial by jury in any Proceeding in connection with or relating to this Agreement, any Seller Ancillary Agreement or any Buyer Ancillary Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions.

Section 13.14. Confidential Nature of Information. Each party hereto agrees that all documents, materials and other information which it shall have obtained regarding the other parties during the course of the negotiations leading to the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions (whether obtained before or after the date of this Agreement), the investigation provided for herein and the preparation of this Agreement and other related documents shall be held in confidence pursuant to the Confidentiality Agreement, which Confidentiality Agreement shall terminate at Closing.

Section 13.15. Privilege; Waiver of Conflicts. Buyer, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates (which, for this purpose, shall be deemed after the Closing to include the Companies) hereby (a) agrees that, notwithstanding any current or prior representation of the Companies and Seller by Sidley Austin LLP ("Prior Companies Counsel"), Prior Companies Counsel shall be allowed to represent Seller in any matters or disputes that arise under or relate to the Contemplated Transactions, (b) waives any claim that Buyer, the Companies, or any of their Affiliates has or may have that Prior Companies Counsel has a conflict of interest or is otherwise prohibited from engaging in such representation, (c) agrees that, if a dispute arises after the Closing between Buyer, the Companies or any of their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and Seller on the other hand, then Prior Companies Counsel may represent Seller in such dispute, even though the interests of Seller may be directly adverse to Buyer or the Companies and even though Prior Companies Counsel may have represented the Companies in matter substantially related to such dispute or may be handling ongoing matters for the Companies, and (d) agrees that, after the Closing, Seller shall retain, own, and control (in its sole and absolute discretion) all communications between or among Prior Companies Counsel and Seller or the Companies that relate, in any way, to the Contemplated Transactions, and with respect to such information, the attorney-client privilege and the expectation of client confidence belongs to Seller and may be controlled by Seller and shall not pass to or be claimed or disputed by Buyer or the Companies or any of their Affiliates; provided, however, that nothing herein is intended or shall be construed to constitute an agreement by Seller or the Companies to waive any privilege of the Companies with respect to any information or communication that does not relate to any dispute under or relating to the Contemplated Transactions (it being understood that any privilege of the Companies that attaches with respect to such other matters shall be controlled solely by the Companies after the Closing). Also, if a dispute arises after the Closing between Buyer or the Companies on the one hand, and any third party other than a Seller on the other hand then the Companies may assert the attorney-client privilege to prevent disclosure to such third-party of confidential communications by Prior Companies Counsel; provided, however, that to the extent such privilege relates in any way to the Contemplated Transactions, the Companies may not waive such privilege without the prior written consent of Seller, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Buyer acknowledges on behalf of itself and its Affiliates (which, for this purpose, shall be deemed after the Closing to include the Companies) that it has had the opportunity to discuss and obtain adequate information concerning the significance and material risks of, and reasonable available alternatives to, the waivers, permissions, and other provisions of this Section 13.15, including the opportunity to consult with independent counsel of its choice.

Section 13.16. Financing Source Related Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, each of the parties agrees (a) that no Financing Source Related Party shall have any liability for any obligations or liabilities of the parties or for any claim (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) based on, or in respect of, or by reason of, the Contemplated Transactions or in respect of any representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith, (b) that, without limiting the rights of any party hereto against the other parties hereto, in no event shall any party hereto or any of its Affiliates seek to enforce this Agreement against, make any claims for breach of this Agreement against, or seek to recover monetary damages from, any Financing Source Related Party, in connection with this Agreement or the Financing, whether at law or equity, in contract, tort or otherwise (it being understood that nothing in this Section 13.16 shall limit the rights of Parent or Buyer against the Financing Source Related Parties under the Commitment Letter), and (c) that it shall not bring or support any Person, or permit Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, in any Proceeding, whether in law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against the Financing Source Related Parties in their capacities as such in any way relating to this Agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions, including any dispute arising out of or relating in any way to any Financing or the performance thereof or the financings contemplated thereby, in any forum other than the federal and New York State courts located in the Borough of Manhattan within the City of New York; (b) agrees that, except as specifically set forth in the terms of any Financing commitments, all claims or causes of action (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) against any of the Financing Source Related Parties in their capacities as such in any way relating to any Financing commitments or the performance thereof or the financings contemplated thereby, shall be exclusively governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal Laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to principles or rules of conflict of laws to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of Laws of another jurisdiction; and (c) HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION (WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, IN CONTRACT, IN TORT OR OTHERWISE) DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING IN ANY WAY TO ANY DEBT FINANCING OR THE PERFORMANCE THEREOF OR THE FINANCINGS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Financing Source Related Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of, and shall be entitled to the protections of Section 13.1, the last sentence of Section 13.6, Section 13.13 and this Section 13.16 to the same extent as if the Financing Source Related Parties were parties to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, (a) "Financing Sources Related Parties" means the Financing Sources, their Affiliates and their respective former, current and future directors, officers, managers, members, stockholders, partners, employees, agents, advisors, representatives, successors and permitted assigns and (b) "Financing Sources" means, in their capacity as such, any lender providing a commitment pursuant to any Financing or any Affiliates, employees, officers, directors, agents or advisors of any such lender in connection with such commitment.

Section 13.17. Guaranty.

(a) Parent absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Seller, the prompt and complete performance of Buyer's obligations under this Agreement and payment in full of all amounts due and payable by Buyer under this Agreement (collectively, the "Obligations"). Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, this Section 13.17 shall not modify the Obligations under this Agreement or require Parent, when performing on the behalf of Buyer, to expand Buyer's Liabilities under this Agreement. The guarantee under this Section 13.17 is a continuing guarantee and shall apply to all Obligations whenever arising.

(b) All payments by Parent to the Seller shall be paid within a timely manner after receipt by Parent from Seller of written demand for such payment and shall not be the subject of any offset against any amounts which may be owed by Seller to Parent.

(c) The obligations of Parent hereunder shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional, except as provided in the last paragraph of Section 13.17(e) hereof, and shall remain in full force and effect until such time as set forth in this Section 13.17 hereof. The obligations of Parent shall not be affected, modified or impaired or prejudiced (i) by any other security now or hereafter held by the Seller as security for the Obligations of Buyer under this Agreement, or (ii) upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following whether or not with notice to or consent by Buyer or Parent, as applicable (except to the extent that its consent may be required pursuant to the terms of this Agreement):

- (i) the compromise, settlement, release, change, modification or termination of any of the Obligations;
- (ii) the extension of time for payment of any of the Obligations;
- (iii) the modification or amendment (whether material or otherwise) of any of the Obligations;
- (iv) the failure, omission, delay or lack on the part of the to enforce, ascertain or exercise any right, power or remedy under or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or this Section 13.17;
- (v) any discharge, termination, cancellation, frustration, irregularity, invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of this Agreement;
- (vi) subject to applicable law, the voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization arrangement, assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership, conservatorship, custodianship, liquidation, marshalling of assets and liabilities or other similar proceedings or automatic stay of either Buyer or Parent; or
- (vii) the taking, variation, renewal, addition, substitution, subordination, or partial or entire release of any security for the Obligations or the enforcement or neglect to perfect or enforce any such security.

(d) Seller shall have the right, in its sole judgment and discretion, from time to time, to make demand for performance or payment of Obligations due and to proceed against Parent for recovery of the total of any and all amounts due pursuant to this Section 13.17, or to proceed from time to time against Parent for such portion of any and all such amounts as Parent may determine.

(e) With respect to all Obligations, this is a guarantee of punctual and complete performance and payment and not of collection, and Parent hereby waives and relinquishes:

- (i) any right to require the Seller to proceed against Buyer, or any other Person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by the Seller at any time or to pursue performance by any Person or any other remedy in Seller's power before proceeding against Parent;

(ii) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity, lack of authority, death or disability of any other Person or the failure of Seller to file or enforce a claim against the estate (in administration, bankruptcy or any other proceeding) of any other Person;

(iii) other than as set forth in Section 13.17(b) above, demand, presentment, protest and notice of any kind, including any action or non-action on the part of any of Buyer, the Seller, the Companies, any creditor of any of Buyer or Parent or on the part of any other Person under this or any other instrument in connection with any obligation or evidence of indebtedness held by the Seller as collateral or in connection with any Obligations hereby guaranteed; or

(iv) any defense arising because of the exercise of any right or remedy available to, or election made by, Seller pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, whether as an unsecured or undersecured creditor, seeking adequate protection, or otherwise.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 13.17 to the contrary, Parent reserves to itself (i) all rights, setoffs, counterclaims, recoupments and other defenses to which Buyer is entitled in accordance with this Agreement (the "Buyer Defenses") (except for defenses arising out of the bankruptcy of Buyer or the incapacity or lack of authority of Buyer to enter into or perform its obligations under this Agreement), and Parent shall be entitled to assert any such Buyer Defense to the same extent that any such Buyer Defense could be asserted by Buyer in any action brought by Seller to enforce an Obligation against Buyer and (ii) subject to Section 13.17, all rights and remedies accorded by Law to sureties or guarantors based on the defense of the statute of limitations related to the enforceability of this Section 13.17 in any action hereunder or in any action for the payment of any Obligations hereby guaranteed.

(f) Termination; Reinstatement of Guaranty.

(i) Subject to the provisions of Section 13.17(f)(ii), this Section 13.17 shall terminate with respect to each Obligation upon the expiration of the applicable survival period under this Agreement for such Obligation as set forth in Article XII.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13.17(f)(i), this Section 13.17 shall be reinstated if at any time following the termination of this Section under Section 13.17(f)(i), any payment by Parent or Buyer of the Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the Seller upon the bankruptcy of Buyer or Parent or otherwise, and is so rescinded or returned to the party or parties making such payment, all as though such payment had not been made. Such period of reinstatement shall continue until satisfaction of the conditions contained in, and shall continue to be subject to, the provisions of this Section 13.17(f).

(g) Parent acknowledges that it will receive substantial direct and indirect benefits from the transaction contemplated by this Agreement and that the covenants, agreements and waivers set forth in this Section are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.
