

ACI Worldwide's Electronic Payment Offerings Improve Payment Experience for City of Baltimore

ACI provides Baltimore residents with a simple and flexible electronic payment experience

NAPLES, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- ACI Worldwide (NASDAQ: ACIW), a leading global provider of electronic payment and banking solutions, today announced that the City of Baltimore (MD) can continue to provide city residents with a quick, simple and reliable way to manage and pay their bills, thanks to ACI's electronic payment offerings.

The City of Baltimore is relying on ACI's electronic payment offerings for real property and personal property tax payments, metered water bill, as well as parking and other miscellaneous city payments.

"When it comes to taxes and city payments, we want to ensure that our residents have the easiest, most convenient and most secure methods to pay," said Janice J. Simmons, Chief, Bureau of Revenue Collections, City of Baltimore. "This is why we partner with ACI and, in fact, have relied on ACI and its processors payments offerings for nearly a decade."

"Government agencies and utility providers are automating bill pay with ACI because we provide the most secure, simplest and most reliable way to present, manage and process payments," said Eric Labiak, Senior Vice President, ACI Worldwide. "Our long relationship with the City of Baltimore speaks to the advanced capabilities within our payment technology—ultimately resulting in taxpayer convenience."

Real property tax payments are currently due and may be paid without interest and penalty until September 30. To view and pay real property taxes, Baltimore residents can visit www.baltimorecity.gov/ and click on Online Payments.
