

German American Bancorp Selects ACI Worldwide to Power New Online Banking Initiative

Delivers fully-integrated online banking platform serving business customers of all sizes

NAPLES, FLA—June 11, 2013— ACI Worldwide (NASDAQ: ACIW), a leading international provider of banking and payment systems, announced today that German American Bancorp, a growing regional bank headquartered in Jasper, IN, has chosen to partner with ACI to expand its online service offerings to business customers.

With the ACI Enterprise Banker solution, German American will offer business customers a single, fully-integrated platform that delivers a seamless front-end experience and enables use by a broad range of users. German American's solution will be managed by the ACI On Demand team from ACI's world-class data center, ensuring maximum availability and business continuity for the bank's growing online business customer base. In addition, German American will customize product packages to their business customers' current and future banking and transactional needs using Enterprise Banker.

"Our business clients value us as a trusted financial resource and we are committed to serving them with leading-edge technology. We believe that ACI's Enterprise Banker gives us the best solution to offer our business customers online services tailored to their unique needs," said Mark A. Schroeder, chairman and CEO at German American. "Enterprise Banker positions us well for maintaining and growing market leadership throughout our southern Indiana footprint."

"ACI remains committed to working with our customers and providing them the solutions to help them succeed," said Matt Ellis, senior vice president, Online, ACI Worldwide. "German American Bancorp is an excellent example of a financial institution that recognizes that the key to long-term success is delivering value to customers. We're proud to partner with German American and offer a market-ready solution to help grow their business."
